ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Writing my Ph.D. Thesis was a difficult task but it was made easy by the able guidance and assistance of those whose names I would like to acknowledge here.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor Dr Rekha Saxena, Associate Professor and authority on Federalism in the Department of Political Science, University of Delhi, who always inspired me to take up this research work. She has shown keen interest in my study and has given me valuable inputs from time to time.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to my academic advisor Prof Manoranjan Mohanty, former Head of the Department Political Science and Dr Ashok Acharya, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, University of Delhi.

Further, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Professor P K Datta, Head of the Department, Political Science and all the faculty of the Department for their help and cooperation.

Last but not the least; I am extremely grateful to the Nobel laureate Desmond Tutu; former Chairman Truth and Reconciliation Commission, Nelson Mandela; former President South Africa, Mrs Ila Gandhi (granddaughter of Mahatma Gandhi); Vice-Chairman, International Centre of Non-Violence, Durban University of Technology, Durban. Prof Mohammad Seedat; University of South Africa, Prof Crispin Hemson, Director, International Centre of Non-Violence, Durban University of Technology, Miss Naomi Webster, Chief Programme Coordinator of South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC).

Here, I would like to express my special gratitude to Swami Sivachdananda a patron of Divine life Society, Risikesh for his guidance and blessings to finish the work.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the veteran human rights activist and international decency movement’s guiding light Mrs Arundhati Devi (Guru Maa), who guided me in framing the idea of the study.
I am also indebted to a number of other people for many helpful comments at various stages of my work like Justice K.G. Balakrishnan, Chairman National Human Right Commission of India, Justice Arjit Pasayat, former Judge Supreme Court of India, Professor Pralay Kanungo, Chairman, Centre for Political Studies (CPS), JNU and K N Jhangir, Consultant at Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi and to a number of persons whose name I can’t remember at this point. Thanks to all of them.

A special word of thanks to all my friends and well-wishers like Sourabh, Jyoti Sharma, Bhavanath Jha, Ashutosh, Miss Avantika and Shankar Duhuria for their support and cooperation throughout my research work, from beginning to the completion.

Lastly, I am extremely grateful to my father Shri Sarat Kishore Kanungo, my late mother Mrs. Premlata Kanungo, my brother Shri Subodh Kumar Kanungo, Shri Prasant Kumar Kanungo, my beloved wife Mrs Lopamudra Kanungo and our baby Sai Suman Kanungo for supporting this noble cause and in timely completion of my PhD Thesis.

Susant Kumar Kanungo