I am grateful to the Almighty who showered countless blessings on me to complete this research work. I respectfully remember the influence and inquisitiveness generated in mind by the great 'Guruparambara' (Greatest teachers) from my early childhood to present study. I wish to express my feelings of indebtedness and gratitude to all who have supportive and encouraging in the completion of this work.

This work is suggested and supervised by my research guide Dr. Gireesh Kumar G.S M.Com, Mphil, MBA, Ph.D, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Nirmala College, Muvattupuzha. I feel great pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to him for his constant encouragement, valuable guidance, continuous supervision and precious time he spared in completing this work in spite of his academic and personal commitments.

I am extremely thankful to Rev. Fr.Vincent Nedumgatt, Principal and Prof. Joy N, and Prof. P.C James, Former Principals of Nirmala College Muvattupuzha for providing all the required facilities for the successful completion of this research. I remember with gratitude the invaluable assistance extended by various faculty members of the Department of Commerce, office staff and the library staff needed for the timely completion of this research work.

I am thankful to the UGC for granting me the teacher fellowship, otherwise it would have been a distant dream in my career path. I am deeply indebted to Prof. K.Prasanna Kumar, Secretary, NSS Colleges Central Committee, Principal and office staff of SVR NSS College for their sincere support throughout the period of research.

I extend my profound gratitude to Prof. Kalyanaraman, the great teacher, analyst and former Head, Department of Statistics, University of Kerala, without his academically rich guidance and insight in the areas of variable identification, data processing, analysis and report writing, present study could not have been completed. I render my heartfelt thanks to him for his timely help and co-operation.

I express my deepest sense of gratitude to Prof. V.K, Moothath, Former Professor of English, University College, Thiruvananthapuram, for his patient reading and necessary corrections for the systematic presentation of the thesis.
I take this opportunity to thank numerous bank personnel from various banks who gave me wholehearted support for responding the survey enthusiastically. The overwhelming interest and support extended by the countless number of executives and union leaders encouraged me to gain deep insight into the work environment of the banking institutions. I deeply acknowledge their hospitality and courteous behavior during the period of my study.

I am grateful to Dr. Harikumar P.N, Associate professor, Department of Commerce, Catholicate College, Pathanamthitta, for his incessant encouragement and wise counsel which he extended during the course of this work.

Dr. B.Padmakumar, MD, Assistant Professor, Government Medical College, Alappuzha and Dr. P.R. Sukumaran Nair MD(Ay), Retired Professor, Government Ayurveda College, Thiruvananthapuram, who have provided valuable technical support in the completion of this work, acknowledge their help and guidance.

Prof. (Dr.) Immanuel Thomas and other faculty members of Department of Psychology, University of Kerala and Prof. (Dr.) Raseena Padnam and other faculty members of the School of Behavioral Science, Mahatma Gandhi University need special mention. My humble thanks are extended to them for their timely help.

I thankfully acknowledge the help and co-operation offered by my research colleagues Sri. Pradeep, Govt. College, Attingal, Sri. Ajimon George, Marian College, Kuttikkanam and other friends for their moral and emotional support throughout my study.

I am thankful to all those writings and work helped me in the execution of my research work.

I would like to express my cordial respect to my loving Parents and brothers who have always been the source of my motivation.

I must record my sincere thanks for the patient forbearance of my wife Dr. Deepa.S, all along the research days and the curiosity shown by my children Daya Dathan and Deva Dathan always kept me on the track to pursue the goal.

Gangadathan Nair.D.