ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all, I am grateful with my heart and soul to the “ALMIGHTY” the most Beneficent and the most Merciful, who with His miraculous and bountiful blessings enabled the trivial existence of mine to do this job.

I feel sheer joy in expressing my revered appreciation and eternal sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my eminent supervisor Dr. Mohd. Ilyas Khan, Reader, Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, who by his multifaceted academic experience and erudition, amicable guidance, encouragement, constructive feedback and suggestions and initial appraisal groomed a scholar out of me. The extended unstinted and warm support at all times to my research endeavors.

The author wishes to express his gratitude to Prof. Akbar Husain, Department of Psychology, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for his enormous help, keen interest and thought provoking guidance. His crucial inputs have been very beneficial in producing this work in its present form.

I owe special thanks to Prof. Hamida Ahmad, Chairperson, Department of Psychology, Allgarh Muslim University, Aligarh for her extraordinary assistance, encouragement, learned guidance, noble advice, and for providing sophisticated research facilities, whenever required.

The author also wishes to express his indebtedness and gratefulness to all the teachers of the Department of Psychology, who either directly or indirectly helped him in any form in carrying out his research work.

A very special mention is due to my father Mr. Naseebullah whose blessings have gone simultaneously in the completion of this arduous task and who with his towering stature and constant support helped me over the years to achieve this momentous task. Also my sister Ms. Yasmeen Jahan deserves the same degree of appreciation, as she lifted my spirits and enhanced my moral strength whenever I was low and embarrassed in predicaments.

Some people do need a distinguished mention in this acknowledgement. I owe a debt of gratitude to my colleague and everlasting friend Ms. Sabiha Baby who tremendously co-operated with me at all stages of this work in an utterly self less manner, rarely seen in this selfish world. Her invaluable suggestions, constant backups and motivation, sincere and expert help shall always remain a cherished memory for me. Also, I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Mohd. Faheem A. Ansari who walked hand in hand with me at all times and who never hesitated to extend any kind of support to me.
My sincere thanks and indebtedness are also due to Dr. Mohd. Zubair and Mr. Iqbal Ahmad, Advocate for their unexpected motivation and precious time that they spared for me. Special credit goes to my beloved classmates Azeemullah Khan, Mohd. Eshtiyaque, Mohd. Atif and Tazeen Wahid, for their positive advice and constructive contributions.

I have much pleasure in expressing my cordial appreciation to Ms. Sadaf for her eager co-operation and moral support, she whenever I was rendered in difficulties or deviated from the path.

I would like to accord special thanks to my fellow research scholars for their patience, great involvement, sympathetic behavior and whole hearted cooperation, which helped me to complete this work in time.

My acknowledgements would never be complete without a candid mention of the trio of Dr. Quasim Husain, Dr. Shahid Husain Ansari and Dr. Mohd Tosif for igniting a spark in my vision with their innovative ideas, the bonhomie they shared with me and for making my hostel life and research work both, an enjoyable experience.

Last but not the least; I take this opportunity to thank Mr. Aqeel Ahmad (Senior Lab Asst.), Mr. Mohd. Tajuddin (Senior Lab Asst.), Mr. Aftab Akhtar (Lab Att.), Mr. Sharique Ahmad (Seminar Librarian), and Mr. Majaz-ul Haque, (Senior Lab Asst.) Department of Psychology for their whole hearted assistance whenever it was needed.
