ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Accomplishment of any work requires the effort and support by many people. It would be sheer ignorance and arrogance to believe that any work or research can be an individual endeavor. It may not be possible to mention all but the following are singled out for exceptional help.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Prof. V. Subramanian for his untiring supervision, invaluable support, timely guidance, parental care and incessant inspiring suggestions which helped me to bring the present work.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. A.L. Ramanathan, SES for his help and fruitful suggestions from time to time. I would not have been able to learn many things and would not able to complete the project.

I would like to record my sincere gratitude towards Prof. V. K. Jain, Dean, SES for providing excellent research facilities to successfully complete this work.

Special thanks to Prof. S.M Sondhi, IIT Roorkee for providing instrumental facilities during the course of my work I gained immense help through his insight into the subject.

I would like to acknowledge the enormous help rendered by all the people for their kind co-operation during my fieldwork to the Chambal region, which made the tough task of collection of samples easy in such a difficult terrain. It may not be possible to mention all by name but special thanks are due to Neeraj, Richesh, Pawan, Vishwanohan, Manoj Bhaiya, Tau Ji and his family who have rendered their help selflessly at the time of sampling in Bheehad of Chambal.

I want to express my deep gratitude towards Bhawna, Didi and Vineeta in compiling the whole thesis and for working with full dedication to finish the work within the stipulated time. I am really indebted to Vijuval Sir, Sanjay and Sutapa for their valuable support. They always stood behind me through thick and thin.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Senthil who helped me in making beautiful maps of my study area. I wish to express my sincerest thanks to Mr. Ashish, Gaurav, Priyanka and Jogendra who gave their valuable time and support during experimental analysis analysis.

I express my sincere thanks and gratitude towards Mr. S.D.S. Rawat, SES for his immense generosity and affection bestowed on me.

I am grateful to all my faculty members, Administrative Officer, Mr. D. L. Sachdeva, Mr. Rajendra, Pant Mam and other staff of SES for providing administrative and research facilities without which, completion of this work would have been impossible.

My sincerest thanks to Central Instrumentation Facility (CIF) Staff, Dr. R.D. Gaikwad, Mr. B.D. Sharma and Mr. Venkat for their immense support and prompt help at the time of need.

I also wish to record deep sense of thankfulness to the lively members of my lab, Dr. Manju Rawat, Mr. C. Chatterjee, Deep Da, Surajjeet, Umesh, Pawan, Sanjay and Jaya, for their cheerful co-operation and endless encouragement. I owe thanks to colleagues from other labs — Gurmeet, Rajesh, Shruti, Pankaj for their help during my research work.
I am grateful to some of my predecessors in the lab, particularly Dr. N. Madhavan and Dr. Abhay Kumar.

I am thankful to Gurudyal, Lalji and Kamal for their prompt help at the time of need.

My special thanks to Dr. C S Gupta, Ms Geeta Mahadevan and whole NISCAIR (CSIR) family for their continuous encouragement and invaluable support during the crucial stages of my life.

I am also deeply indebted to sophisticated analytical instrument facility (SAIF) at CDRJ, Lucknow for helping me carrying out characterization part of humic acid.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude towards Katyar Sir and Preeti for providing tremendous moral support at crucial moments. Special thanks are due to all my friends, Hafeez, Vivek, Uday Singh, Kusum, Jayanand - Satya, Rahul, Rohit and Rakesh.

It is unvarnished truth that this treatise would have never been materialized in the absence of wonderful and lovable family, with whom I share my moments of happiness and sorrow. From the core of my heart I would like to thank Vinay my husband, Mummy, Didi, Navi, Mummy-Papa, Renu Di and JiJaji, Vineeta, Vibhor for their constant inspiration and for standing by my side all the time of need and necessity. The presence of the young ones – Shyambhavi and Shankari have been a constant source of happiness.

My acknowledgment will be incomplete if I will not remember my father at the very crucial juncture of my life. I can feel still his presence and blessings; he must be showering at me from the other world.

Finally, I surrender all my abilities to the almighty, without whose blessings the wisdom of truth and the vision of knowledge would not have been possible to make the saga of my life.
