ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The study on "Role of Financial Institutions in the Industrialisation of Kerala" outlined in the following pages of this thesis could be carried out effectively only with the hearty cooperation and goodwill of a number of persons. It is my duty to acknowledge them and express my gratitude to all those who helped me in accomplishing this work.

I am immeasurably indebted to Prof. Dr. K.C. Vijayakumar whose eminent guidance and altruistic incentive helped the fruitfulness of this work. In spite of his pre-occupations he spared his valuable time and evinced keen interest at every stage of my research work. But for his inspiring guidance and constant encouragements, it would have been impossible for me to pursue and complete the present work. I take this opportunity to thank him for his unstinted support and painful efforts.

No words would suffice to express my deep sense of gratitude to my major advisor, Dr. Sainul Abideen, my co-guide and former Head of the Department of Commerce and Management Studies (DCMS), Calicut university. His help remains a RIMNA which I can never hope to be able to repay.

I gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to Dr. Sarada A.K., Head, DCMS for her unfailing support in all her possible ways. My sincere thanks are also tendered to the faculty of DCMS, Calicut University.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to the Vice Chancellor, Calicut university for granting me leave to complete the research work. I express my dutiful thanks to the University Grants Commission for providing me with financial assistance.

I express my deep gratitude to Dr. K.P. Mani of College of Co-operation and Banking Management, Kerala Agricultural University, Mannuthy for his invaluable guidance, highly supportive and encouraging role without which this work would not have been possible.

Words can seldom fully convey my gratitude and sincere thanks to my principals - Rev. Sr. Ivantia and Rev. Sr. Vijaya my former principals, Rev. Dr. Sr. Renjana, present principal for what they have done for me so kindly.
My sincere thanks are also tendered to my colleagues in the Post-graduate Department of Commerce, St. Joseph's College, Irinjalakuda, especially, Mr. Jacob G. Mampilly, former HOD.

I am indebted to Rev. Sr. Rose Bastin, my colleague and research scholar for her enlightened discussions and advice.

I wish to place on record my gratitude to Mr. A.C. Rajan and other officials of KSIDC, Mr. Francis Gomez and other officials of Kerala Financial Corporation, Thiruvananthapuram, Mr. Shaji K.V. and other officials of State Level Bankers' Committee, Thiruvananthapuram and all branch managers of different banks who generously spared their precious time for furnishing the required information and discussing their rich experience with me.

I gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to Mr. N. Gopinathan of District Industries Centre, Thrissur for his unfailing support in all possible ways.

I thank all the promoters and employees of the units I visited, for their co-operation and willingness in parting with information about the units.

My special thanks to Mr. G. Narayanankutty, librarian and Mr. Moideenkutty, his assistant of DCMS Library for their assistance in providing me with the available literature. In the course of present research, I have had occasions to visit many centres of learning inside and outside the State. I wish to place on record my gratefulness to the librarians and assistants of all the libraries I have visited especially:

2. St. Joseph's College Library, Irinjalakuda.
4. College of Co-operation and Banking Management Library, Mannuthy.
5. Kerala Institute for Local Administration (KILA) Library, Thrissur.
6. Central Library, Cochin University of Science & Technology (CUSAT).
7. School of Management Studies Library, CUSAT.
9. Central Library, 'University of Kerala and
10. Department of Commerce Library, 'University of Kerala.
I am really thankful to Ms. Sunanda C. who helped me in the analysis work with computer.

I also express my heartfelt thanks to the staff members of M/s. Educare Infotech, Thrissur and M/s. Srividya Computers, Thenhipalam for their tireless effort for converting my handwritten manuscript into the present typed version. I thank M/s. Naveen Printers, Thrissur for the binding work they have done.

Words can seldom fully convey my gratitude to Ms. Suneetha, my student who had been a helping hand in my studies.

I remember with reverence my parents who are no more, whose only ambition for their children was their academic achievements.

With love I place on record my sincere gratefulness to my brother Mr. Francy Davy, Senior Manager, The Catholic Syrian Bank Ltd. for his timely advice and moral support.

It gives me immense pleasure to express my gratitude to my brother-in-law Prof. Sebastain Verghese, St. Berchmans College, Changanasseri who helped me in preparing this thesis.

On this occasion, I also remember my daughters Minu Lis, Meera Ros and Ann Maria and my parents-in-law who in a sense have borne the real cost of the work.

My acknowledgement to my husband Mr. John Chiriyankandath goes beyond the usual custom of thanking one's husband. He has shown sustained interest in the work which I found encouraging.

And above all I wish to express my eternal gratitude to 'The Lord Almighty' under whose divine guidance I have been able to successfully complete this work.

The list is not complete, but that doesn't mean that I am ungrateful. I will always cherish in memory the invaluable help rendered by one and all of them.

I, myself, however remain solely responsible for the inadequacies and blemishes that might have crept into the study.

[Signature]

JANCY DAVY