Acknowledgements....

As rightly said by Santoka Taneda, the wandering on and the journey of my research work is not my internal journey alone, rather it is a journey of all those who knowingly or unknowingly have been a part of my journey and helped me in my spiritual quest.

The first and foremost person whom I wholeheartedly acknowledge is my supervisor Dr. Savita Singh. It is rightly said that a spark becomes a flame even by a light breeze, and this spark of spirituality was ignited in me by a very strong breeze coming from an unfailing heart, filled with strong spiritual belief – my guide. She has encouraged me throughout my journey from the beginning till the ultimate destination and enabled me to develop an understanding of my subject. I am fortunate to have her as my guide.

I wholeheartedly thank my co-guide Dr. Chitranjan. R. Kar, Professor (Retd) for his invaluable guidance and kind words of encouragement and blessings. With his profound knowledge, he made my journey very enriching.

I feel deeply obliged to Dr. V. N. Dubey, Professor and Head, School of Studies in Literature and Language, for his invaluable support and guidance.

I am thankful to Dr. K.L. Verma, Professor, Dr. Shail Sharma, Professor, School of Studies in Literature and Language, for their sincere advice and guidance.

Words would fall short to acknowledge all my friends, colleagues and seniors who have stood by me and made me rise above all obstacles to complete my pursuit. I thankfully acknowledge the help provided by the University Librarian and the Assistant Librarian.

My heartfelt obeisances to the Supreme Power, for making me realize that I am a spiritual being having a human experience.

When it comes to expressing our feelings of thankfulness to our near and dear ones, words prove to be insufficient. I owe a lot to my mother, who is a continuous source of inspiration to me. My wholehearted acknowledgement to my better half, my partner for life - Rajesh, my son Raghav and all the members of my big family. Undoubtedly their firm support and faith in me has served as an inspiration and motivation for me.

I will always be indebted to Acharya Shri. S. N. Goenkaji, the leading teacher of Vipassana Meditation, the teachings of Buddha, who kindled in me the spark of spirituality. With his grace and blessings my spiritual odyssey has been an enlightening experience.

Having ultimately reached my destination, I would like to ask for forgiveness from all those whom I might have hurt knowingly or unknowingly in my journey.

As rightly said by Acharyaji, let all beings be at peace.

Simrann R Vermaa