SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

Writings of Gandhi

All Men are Brothers. Ahmedabad: Navajivan, 1960.

Cent per cent Swadeshi or The Economics of Village Industries. Ahmedabad: Navajivan, 1948.

Constructive Programme. Ahmedabad: Navajivan, 1941.

Economics of Khadi. Ahmedabad: Navajivan, 1941.

Gandhiji's Correspondence with the Government. 1942 - 44 Ahmedabad: Navajivan, 1945.

God is Truth Bombay: Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, 1957.

Our Language Problem. Karachi : The Editor, 1942.

Ruskin's Unto This Last : A Paraphrase. Ahmedabad : Navajivan, 1951.

The Indian State's Problem. Ahmedabad : Navajivan. 1941.
Unto This Last. Ahmedabad : Navajivan. 1951.
Other Works

King, Martin Luther Strength to Love. Glasgow: William Collins Sons & Co Ltd. 1990.

Mazumdar, Haridas T. Mahatma Gandhi. New York : Charles Scribner's Sons

Mittal, Kewal Krishnan (eds.) Ethical Ideas of Mahatma Gandhi. Delhi : University of Delhi, 1981.

Prabhu, R.K. This was Babu,. Ahmedabad: Navajivan, 1954.

339

INTRODUCTION
Article 1. Setting the theme in Perspective
I. 1. 1. Humanity in crisis
I. 1. 2. Crisis in world-view
I. 1. 3. The Gandhian diagnosis
I. 1. 4. Two major world-views
a) Spiritualistic world-view
b) Materialistic world-view I. 1. 5. Search for alternatives
a) Constructing a new world-view
b) Rediscovering Gandhi's world-view I. 1. 6. Survey of studies

Article 2. Certain Criticisms Considered I. 2. 1. Is Gandhi a system-builder?
I. 2. 2. Is Gandhi anti-science?
I. 2. 3. Is Gandhi inconsistent?

Article 3. The Research Design
I. 3. 1. Hypotheses
I. 3. 2. Objectives
I. 3. 3. Methodology
I. 3. 4. Scope and limits of the study
I. 3. 5. Chapterisation

CHAPTER II A NOTE ON WORLD-VIEW And WHOLISM Article 1. World-view
II. 1. 1. Meaning and conceptual framework
II. 1. 2. Various definitions
II. 1. 3. Scientific philosophy vs weltanschauung
II. 1. 4. World-view as wisdom
II. 1. 5. A comprehensive concept
II. 1. 6. Conformity of theory and praxis II. 1. 7. Two traditions in philosophy: intuitionistic and intellectual II. 1. 8. The Indian tradition: philosophy as darshan II. 1. 9. The ultimate determinant?
   a) Authority of experience
   b) Correspondence of experience and world-view
   c) Experience and commitment II. 1. 10. An evaluation
Article 2. Wholism
II. 2. 1. Why wholism?
II. 2. 2. A definition
II. 2. 3. 'Holism' and science
II. 2. 4. The two theses

CHAPTER III METAPHYSICAL FOUNDATIONS OF GANDHI'S WORLD-VIEW - I

Article 1. Groundings in Religion
III. 1. 1. Rooted in Indian tradition
III. 1. 2. Western influences: an overview
III. 1. 3. The religious atmosphere of the household
III. 1. 4. The study of religions
III. 1. 5. From piety to metaphysics

Article 2. Towards a Gandhian Epistemology III. 2. 1. Some key issues in epistemology
   a) Sensualism and Intellectualism
   b) Scepticism and Dogmatism
   c) Intuition
   d) Epistemology vs metaphysics III. 2. 2. Characteristics of Gandhi's epistemology
   a) Complementarity of metaphysics and epistemology
   b) Truth as absolute standard and perfect knowledge
   c) Means of valid knowledge
   d) Inner-voice, an epistemic tool
   e) Inner-voice, the final arbiter
   f) Gandhi, an audio-mystic
   g) Do it yourself -- the test
   h) Need for discipline

III. 2. 3. Epistemology and ethics
III. 2. 4. The practical value of knowledge
III. 2. 5. The grand synthesis

CHAPTER IV METAPHYSICAL FOUNDATIONS OF GANDHI'S WORLD-VIEW GANDHI'S ONTOLOGICAL TRIUNE: GOD, WORLD, MAN

Article 1. The Ultimate Reality: God -- Truth
IV. 1. 1. The bewildering mystery
IV. 1. 2. Personal God
IV. 1. 3. From person to principle
IV. 1. 4. Immanence and transcendence
IV. 1. 5. Truth is God
IV. 1. 6. Gandhi's concept of truth
IV. 1. 7. The Ultimate Reality - benevolent or malevolent IV. 1. 8. Proofs of the existence of God
IV. 1. 9. A resume

Article 2. World-Nature
IV. 2. 1. How real is the world of reality?
IV. 2. 2. Vision upanishadic
IV. 2. 3. Synthesis of advaitism and dvaitism IV. 2. 4. Vision corroborated by new physics
IV. 2. 5. Reverence for Nature
IV. 2. 6. In tune with Nature's laws IV. 2. 7. Nature - an unmixed blessing ?
IV. 2. 8. Space and time
IV. 2. 9. A resume

Article 3. Man as Self
IV. 3. 1. Man, a wonderful piece of work !
IV. 3. 2. Concept of self implicit in world-view IV. 3. 3. Man, a manifestation of God
IV. 3. 4. The lower and the higher selves
IV. 3. 5. Need for a metaparadigm IV. 3. 6. Human nature
a) Three western theories
b) Gandhi's views on human nature IV. 3. 7. Oneness of man and of all life
IV. 3. 8. Free will and determinism
a) The theory of Karma - a glance
b) Rebirth
IV. 3. 9. A resume

CHAPTER V. METAPHYSICAL FOUNDATIONS OF GANDHI'S WORLD-VIEW THE ULTIMATE GOAL - SELF-REALIZATION
V. 0. 1. Self-realization, a comprehensive concept V. 0. 2. The Hindu view of moksha
a) The purusharthas, the Hindu goals of life
b) Nature of self-realization an overview
c) Paths to liberation V.0. 3. Gandhi's views on self-realization
a) Self-realization, the ultimate aim
b) Self-realization, a corporate goal
c) Self-realization as freedom from violence V. 0. 4. Way to self-realization
a) The synthesis of the Gita
b) The anasakti yoga of Gandhi
c) God in his creations
V. 0. 5. Self-realization - the pivot of Gandhi's world-view

CHAPTER VI ETHICAL BASIS OF GANDHI'S WORLD-VIEW
Article 1. Ethics and Metaphysics
VI. 1. 1. Ethical path to spiritual goal
VI. 1. 2. Ethics and mysticism
VI. 1. 3. The Gandhian synthesis Article 2. Gandhi's Ethical Ideas
VI. 2. 1. The means - end question as the means so the end VI. 2. 2. Vows and their observance
a) Truth
b) Non-violence
c) Chastity
d) Control of the palate
e) Non-stealing
f) Non-possession

g) Fearlessness

h) Non-observance of untouchability

i) Bread-labour

j) Equality of religions

k) Self-reliance

VI. 2. 3. Rights vs duties

VI. 2. 4. Yajna or sacrifice

VI. 2. 5. Humility

Summing up

CHAPTER VII GANDHIAN PRAXIS - 1

SARVODAYA SOCIETY - VISION AND STRUCTURE

Article 1. The Vision of a New World: Sarvodaya

VII. 1. 1. Individual and society

VII. 1. 2. The rationale of a just social order

VII. 1. 3. Sarvodaya, a comprehensive concept

VII. 1. 4. Sarvodaya and the law of history

VII. 1. 5. Non-violent ordering of life

Article 2. The Social Order of Sarvodaya.

VII. 2. 1. Based on the oneness of life

VII. 2. 2. The varna system in the Gandhian frame of reference

VII. 2. 3. Approach to specific issues

a) Removal of untouchability

b) Women's issues and Gandhi's feminist perspectives

VII. 2. 4. Social order vis-a-vis the ultimate goal

Article 3. The Structure of a Non-violent Economy

VII. 3. 1. The approach

VII. 3. 2. Economics and ethics

VII. 3. 3. Limitation of wants

VII. 3. 4. Basic-needs strategy

VII. 3. 5. Villagism

VII. 3. 6. Limits to industrialisation

VII. 3. 7. The question of size in industry and technology

VII. 3. 8. Decentralisation

VII. 3. 9. Integration of small and large

VII. 3. 10. The doctrine of Trusteeship

VII. 3. 11. True economics

Article 4. The Political Structure

VII. 4. 1. Moralising politics

VII. 4. 2. Enlightened anarchy

VII. 4. 3. Attitude to political power

VII. 4. 4. Decentralisation of power

VII. 4. 5. Swaraj by consent: a compromise

VII. 4. 6. Need for vigilance and satyagraha

VII. 4. 7. Nationalism and internationalism

VII. 4. 8. Obiter Dicta

VII. 4. 9. Summing up Article 5. The Educational order
VII. 5. 1. Life-long experiments
VII. 5. 2. Limitations of the British system of education
VII. 5. 3. New Education or the Wardha Scheme
VII. 5. 4. The meaning and philosophy of New Education
VII. 5. 5. The centrality of craft and its significance
VII. 5. 6. Social orientation
VII. 5. 7. The technique of correlation VII. 5. 8. Instruction through mother-tongue
VII. 5. 9. Higher education
VII. 5. 10. An estimate: liberative education Afterword
CHAPTER VIII GANDHIAN PRAXIS - II
GANDHIAN TECHNIQUE OF CHANGE RESISTANCE AND RECONSTRUCTION
Article 1. Need for a Comprehensive Technique of Change Article 2. Satyagraha VIII. 2. 1. A Comprehensive concept VIII. 2. 2. Why non-violence?
VIII. 2. 3. Certain misconceptions clarified
a) Not inaction
b) Not passive resistance VIII. 2. 4. Basic premises and principles VIII. 2. 5. Rules for satyagrahis VIII. 2. 6. Qualifications for a satyagrahi VIII. 2. 7. Forms of satyagraha
a) Non-co-operation
b) Civil-disobedience
c) Fasting
VIII. 2. 8. The hope of human race Article 3. Constructive Programme
VIII. 3. 1. The agenda VIII. 3. 2. Training for civil-disobedience VIII. 3. 3. Way to swaraj
VIII. 3. 4. The political thrust
Summing up
CHAPTER IX CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY