ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this work has provided me with an opportunity to acknowledge people without whom this thesis would not have attained its present shape. With profound gratitude and sincere regards I would like to thank my supervisor, Dr. Vidhu Verma for providing me valuable suggestions and comments during this research work. Her unwavering support and endurance has enabled me to complete this research work satisfactorily.

My sincere gratitude to Prof. A. K. Ray for initiating me into the world of research and being a source of invaluable guidance and support. He also helped me in becoming a better human being as I learnt many things about life from him. I greatly admire his humility and modesty and will try to look at all things in life positively and enthusiastically, like him. His advice “to be good to others” will always remain a source of inspiration for me.

I would also like to extend my thanks to Prof. Rekha Chowdhary for many long and thought provoking discussions, incisive comments, ideas and constructive criticism all of which besides being indispensable for helping me evolve my arguments and resolve my ambiguities also made writing this thesis a personally stimulating experience.

My field trip to Kashmir would not have been possible without the kind help of Jamal Ahmed Sir. He made all the arrangements for my stay in Srinagar. Thank you Sir, for making this trip safe and comfortable.

I am also thankful to Prof. Valerian. Rodrigues, Prof Gopal Guru and Prof Rahul Mukherji of the Centre for Political Studies, JNU; Prof Baba of Kashmir University; Prof Panda, Prof Nagendra Rao and Suresh Babu of Jammu University and Shri Balraj Puri for their valuable suggestions which gave depth and clarity to my amateur notions.

I would also like to thank Teen Murti for providing me Nehru Memorial Fellowship for this research work. I also express my gratitude to the staff of the Central Library, JNU and libraries at the IDSA, Teen Murti, Jammu University and Kashmir University for their generous help and support.

The research work also helped me realize the true essence of friendship and care in my close friends, Manisha who helped me in giving final touch to this work, Nancy who accompanied me in my field trips and made these trips an enjoyable experience, I can never really thank her fully, Chhaya who helped me in sorting out the mess whether related to my thesis or my state of mind. I would also like to thank my pals Sameer, Shazia, Idreesh, Nidhi, Manu, Gurpinder and Shikha for helping me always.

I am indebted to my family, for always believing in me and letting me go and grow in my own way, and for providing the secure foundations of my existence.

Last but definitely not the least I am extremely thankful to the people of Jammu and Kashmir for their incredible warmth and support during my field trip. It is to them that I dedicate this work.

Finally all the errors therein, I claim solely as mine.
