ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words are too short to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Ajay Kumar Singh, Associate Professor and Coordinator – MHROD Program, Department of Commerce, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi, under whose guidance I had the privilege to complete this study. I am greatly indebted to him for providing valuable guidance, constructive suggestions, positive and supportive attitude, moral boost up and continuous encouragement at all stages of the study without which it would have not been possible to complete it. In spite of his multifarious duties and busy schedules, Dr. Singh always made himself available for consultations and for offering guidance. He is a constant source of inspiration for me.

I am thankful to the Head of the Department of Commerce, Prof. K. V. Bhanu Murthy, for providing the necessary help in finding clarity and knowledge. He took active initiatives for promoting research facilities, creating research forum, and organizing many workshops to help the researchers from the department of commerce in their research work.

This study has been enriched from excellent and at times provocative discussions with friends from academic circle and HR Executives of the various organizations. I express my gratitude to all of them for their scholarly discussions, comments, suggestions, and information. I owe special thanks to my friends specially Ms. Smrita Sinha, senior lecturer, Amity University, Mrs. Sonal Babbar, Assistant Professor, Maitrey College, DU, Mrs. Rachna Jain, Research Scholar, DU, for their ever encouraging and moral support at the time when I needed most. I would also like to thank Vibhash Kumar Singh, Research Scholar, DU for his assistance in analyzing and discussing the data.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to the respondents for their valuable time and suggestions. I shall be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the help and assistance of all those people who helped me in collecting data for the study. In particular, I thank Mr. Sandeep Khemani, Ms. Kavita Gupta, Mr. Mukul Singhal, Mr. Manoj Gupta, Mrs. Priya Chandan, Ms. Pragya Gupta and all other persons for their support in data collection.
I am thankful to the authorities and staff of the Ratan Tata Library, Faculty of Management Studies Library, Central Library, Management Development Institute (MDI) library, SCOPE library, and Delhi school of Professional Studies and Research (DSPSR) for extending all necessary help and facilities and for their co-operation. I also thank to the computer lab assistant of Commerce Department for his cooperation.

I also thank the University Grants Commission for providing me the Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) and Senior Research Fellowship (SRF) to carry out the research work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the affectionate help, assistance, blessings, constant patience and moral support from all of my family members particularly my parents, husband (Mr. Vineet Gupta), brother (Mr. Amit Gupta), bhabhi (Mrs. Neha Gupta), and beloved daughter Divisha. It would have been practically impossible for me to do this project without their support.

I thank god for blessing me with the talent to add value in this and in so many other ways.
