The most redeeming part of writing a Research Report is the freedom you get to express your gratitude to people who have blessed you with their intellect, charisma and sincere wishes so that your Research gets completed. I am one of those who have a long list of people who have blessed me and have inspired me both personally and professionally all through my life.

Research projects cannot move in the desired direction or come to any meaningful conclusion without the expert guidance. I express my sincere gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. Manju Nair, Principal, International School of Informatics and Management, Jaipur for her guidance, encouragement and support. She has been graceful to accommodate discussions with me at short notices due to my compulsive job responsibilities. She has been instrumental in putting up the objectives of the Research considering my passion for the subject.

I am indebted to Dr. Ashok Gupta, Vice Chancellor, The IIS University, Jaipur, Dr. M K Sharma, Dean, Faculty of Commerce & Management, Prof. Subhash Garg, Dean & Director, CRIT and Dr. Poonam Madan, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Management Studies, for their constant guidance and support.

I have been very fortunate in getting the patronage of my present employers Shri. Arvind Poddar, CMD and Shri. Rajiv Poddar, Jt. Managing Director, Balkrishna Tires, Mumbai. They have been perennial inspiration to me. They have shown keen interest in my Research and have always been forthcoming in accepting my absence from office for my Research work.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. Rajendra Patil my Co-Supervisor, Director Maratha Mandir’s Babasaheb Gawde Institute of Management Studies, Mumbai for his witty but absorbing sessions while he guided me. Time and again he put me wise on the finer aspects of Industrial Relations.

I am grateful to Dr. Kavaldeep Dixit for regularly keeping me abreast with the happenings at the University on the Research front. She has been a genuine well wisher and always prompted me to complete my work in time. My thanks are also due to Dr Seema Mehta who put me wise and proved to be trouble shooter whenever I got stuck up on nuances of research.

I am grateful to my friends, most especially Dr. Tanjul Saxena who has been instrumental in motivating me since long to do my Research. In one of the rare examples of reverse mentoring, she has always questioned my work progress critically and regularly. During difficult times she has brought me back inspired to complete the work.

I would like to express very special thanks to my colleagues Sachin and Merlyn who provided me incessant support while working on the text, the data and preparing the final document. My heartfelt gratitude to Mr Karunakaran for his expert assistance in proof reading the report.

I find no words to thank my life partner, Neeta for her untiring motivation and a very strict monitoring of my Research progress. She would always check how much time I devoted at home each day, even on holidays, on my Research project. I am very proud to have a son like Ashish who has shown keen interest in my work and has always sought feedback on a very serious note. My daughter, Radhika was very helpful in teaching me work on the laptop as also helped in data tabulation. A big thanks to her and best wishes. Sushmita, my daughter in law always kept a happy environment in the house by constantly smiling. My granddaughter Ashita would always tell me “Dada Padho” whenever she would see the bookshelf. I express my thanks to her loving care!

I am grateful to my professional Gurus, Shri. P R Surana, Shri. R Subramanyam, Shri. J N Amrolia, Shri.P K Lal and Shri. P N Dhoot who coached me with their knowledge and wisdom on IR, HR and Administration and enabled me reach the corporate level where I stand today.
