ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

An acknowledgement should be an expression of genuine gratitude and not a set of platitudes. The work for doing research for the award of doctoral degree needs the support of many people. First and foremost I acknowledge God for giving me the wisdom and confidence in accomplishing this work.

In my idyllic attempt to conglomerate the thesis, I am highly obliged to Dr. S. O. Junare for his esteemed inspiration throughout the journey. It is with profound feelings of gratitude I place on record, my extreme indebtedness to him for providing me support in terms of knowledge, resources and guidance. His constant words of support and right direction at crucial moments helped me finish this work. The thesis would not have been possible without his support.

Thanking the Chairman (National Institute of Cooperative Management), Shri Narhari Amin, might normally seem a formal gesture attributed to the hierarchy, but in my case it is the sincere expression of gratitude and appreciation for a person who always remembered to inquire about my progress and encouraged me for successful completion of my work.

A doctoral research work has internal motivational value for the researcher. However, Faculty Development Program organized by Indian Institute of Management, Kozikhode acted as a tremendous inspirational experience.

I would also wish to thank Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya University to provide me a platform to undertake my doctoral studies.

I also take the opportunity to thank all the respondents of questionnaire for giving their time and cooperation during the venture. They have provided an amicable milieu, which led to the completion of the research. I also extend my sincere thanks to fellow PhD students who were always there to share their experiences and knowledge for removing complex methodological challenges.

Last but not the least and most importantly, I thank my parents Mr Manoj Bhatt and Mrs Bela Bhatt, my wife and my son Manav for providing continuous moral support and encouragement with their prayers, blessings and good wishes. My wife Professor Amola Bhatt needs special mention for putting up with my crazy working hours and preoccupations.

Lastly, I thank all those whom I have not quoted unknowingly, but have helped me directly or indirectly.
