Clinical Implications

- Aerobic exercise is an imperative part of the existing form of therapies, to halt the progression of DPN in type 2 diabetes.

- Aerobic exercise is an important tool to improve neuropathy specific Quality of Life in DPN.

- Aerobic exercise along with standard care can result in an enhanced glycemic control as compared to standard care alone.