ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My fingers are stiffened, my hands shiver, my heart beats fast, my mind is plunged into crisis, and my spirit begins to explode when I bring to my mind immense grace which was bestowed on me by Allāh the Lord Almighty during my stay in India. With all humbleness, I acknowledge this grace, though with full realization that He is self-praised and His bounties are limitless, His mercy and forgiveness on human beings, which are as wide as the Heavens, are so indiscriminate and tremendous. His signs are so manifest that human hands can neither engrave nor paint; no tongue can sing His praise.

First of all, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my guide Dr. Supriya Sahasrabuddhe for her support and constant encouragement throughout this work.

I would like to extend my thanks and gratitude to Dr Ashok Thorat, Director of IASE, Pune, whose indispensable comments and suggestions made this work go smoothly in its initial stages.

Special thanks are extended to Dr. S. S. Chopra, University of Pune, for her constructive and invaluable comments on the thesis that helped me to organize and present the work in its final shape.

I take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to my teachers, Prof. S. R. Sharma, Prof. K. S. Nagaraja, and Prof. R. V. Dhongde (Dept. of Linguistics, Deccan College, Pune) who taught me Linguistics and made me familiar with its vast field from scratch. I am also thankful to the Deccan College Library staff for their ceaseless cooperation and assistance.

I would like to proffer my thanks and gratitude to the Government of Yemen and the University of Sana'a, Yemen, in particular, for granting me the scholarship to pursue my higher education for M.A. and Ph. D. in India. I take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. Abdu Mus'ed Hemran (former Dean of Khawlan Faculty, University of Sana'a, Yemen) for his ceaseless encouragement and fatherly advice and help.

My special thanks are due to my brothers Hameed, Adel, and Mohammad for their help and ongoing support.

I extend my thanks to Dr. Abdul-Wahid Qasim (Sana'a University, Yemen) and Mr. Abdul-Bari Mahboob (Aden University, Yemen), for providing me with some materials related to the study.

It is difficult to find words to reveal the feelings to all my friends who supported me directly or indirectly during my stay in India. So I pray to Allāh to reward them abundantly. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Dawood Mahdi (Ibb University, Yemen) who did not spare any efforts to help me and all the students in Pune when he was here. There are many friends like Mohammed Al-Moqbeli, Dr. A. Shuja'a, Abdul-Wahid Hashid, Sharaf Al-Homdi, Al-Khader, Nabil, Essam, AbdulKarim with whom I shared unforgettable memories here and many others who I can not recall at the moment.
Last but not least, I would like to thank my family for their support and help. No words can express the gratitude and indebtedness, which my parents deserve as they did bring me up, and have always been overwhelming me with their prayers. I always pray to Allāh the Almighty to reward them the best and bestow His Mercy on them. Finally yet importantly, my love and gratitude go to my beloved wife and children Mohammad, Ahlam and Abrar who suffered much from my absence from them to make me free to finish this work as soon as possible. I ask Allāh (God) to reward them the best.

Fahed Alsaif

Pune, India
April 2008