ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A research study consumes the efforts of individual scholar besides the help and co-operation of various individuals and institutions, as goes the Chinese saying, “Behind every great man there are great men”. Thanks to Almighty, I have received the required co-operation, guidance, comments and constructive criticism from various individual experts and the logistic support from institutions which were really crucial for this type of study. I have the pleasure to acknowledge my gratitude to all of them. If I miss to mention any of them by name, it would be certainly unintentional and mere chance.

First and foremost, I wish to acknowledge my gratitude to Professor (Dr) S. Fayyaz Ahmad, Ex. Head, Department of Business And Financial Studies and presently Registrar, University of Kashmir, Srinagar, for supervising my research study with constant vigil and unstinted vigour. I have immensely benefited from his scholarly insights and his intellectual guidance in the most complex situations I have faced during the course of the study. My thanks are due to Professor (Dr) Khursheed A. Butt, The Head, Department of Business And Financial Studies for constant encouragement and proper facilitation of my Ph. D Programme. My special thanks are due to Professor (Dr) Mohi-u-din Sangmi, Ex.Head Department of Business And Financial Studies and Ex. Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management Studies, for his administrative acumen and quick disposal of official matters in regard to this programme. I am thankful to Professor (Dr) M A Sahaf, The Director, The Business School and Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management Studies, University of Kashmir for his scholarly comments and quick administrative decisions. I wish to put on record my gratitude to all the faculty members (particularly Dr Nazir Ahmad Nazir) and non-teaching staff of the Department of Business And Financial Studies, whose co-operation has gone a long way in the completion of this research study.

I wish to acknowledge my gratitude to all the scholars throughout the world whose research works have been used for the review of literature to make a base for the present study.

I am indebted to Dr. Kuldeep Singh, Former Chairman IIM Indore for his valid and critical guidance in designing the questionnaire for the present study. Since he has worked a lot in this area in Indian context, his scholarly insights put me out of the complex situation which I faced in designing the questionnaire.

I am indebted to Delhi School of Economics, New Delhi for giving me an opportunity for visiting and using the rich library facility of Rattan TATA Library. I am equally indebted to various other institutions for using their modern and enriched library facilities. To mention a few, I am indebted to Management Development Institute, Gurgaon for using library facility at its Campus, Sri Ram Centre for Industrial Relations, New Delhi, Iqbal Library, University of Kashmir, Danvantary Central Library, University of Jammu and Seminar Library, Department of Business And Financial Studies, University of Kashmir, Srinagar.

I would like to put on record my gratitude to the respondents (Branch Managers) from the sample organizations for endorsing my request for appropriate answers to the items of the questionnaire during field survey. They took time out of their busy schedule for responding to my questionnaire during the field survey and very fruitful interactions which I had with them. Without the support of respondents, this study would not have seen the light of the day, as the present study is based mostly on the primary data.

I would like to put on record my gratitude to U.G.C, New Delhi for the grant of fellowship under Faculty Improvement Programme (FIP) during the Tenth Plan Period.

My special thanks are due to my friends and colleagues Prof. (Dr) Farooq Ahmad Shah and Prof. Javaid Ahmad for constant comments, review and suggestions during the process of completion of this study.

I am thankful to my friend Mr. M. Ameen for taking all the pains to edit the manuscript of this thesis in spite of his busy schedule.

Words fail me to put on record my gratitude to Kh. Mohammad Yousuf Lone, for his vision, mission and perseverance. His encouragement and guidance have proved to be beacon light to me in the pursuit of this study.

Finally, I can not put in words the gratitude due to my parents for their benediction, benevolence and blessings. I owe my gratitude to my wife and two sons, Saalim and Hanaan, for their sustained tolerance and sacrificing their comforts during the course of this study.

Ghulam Mohammad Lone
Research Scholar (Ph.D)
