Acknowledgement

This work was undertaken under the inspiration and guidance of Dr. M. M. Shikare, Professor, Department of Mathematics, University of Pune, Pune. He not only provided much needed advice but also encouraged me all the way. With a profound sense of gratitude, I humbly thank Dr. M. M. Shikare. His guidance, motivation, enthusiasm and constant support inspired me throughout this work. I express my deepest and sincere gratitude to him.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Dr. Yashwant Borse (Pune University). His sincere and brilliant involvement in frequently long discussions helped me to a large extent.

I am very much thankful to Professor T. T. Raghunathan for giving valuable suggestions at certain stages.

My thanks are due to Professor B. N. Waphare, Head of the Department and Professor Mrs. N. S. Bhave, the former Head, Department of Mathematics, University of Pune for readily providing the necessary facilities during the course of this work. I also thank the non-teaching staff of the Department of Mathematics, University of Pune for giving all the facilities in the Department with full cooperation.

I express my sincere gratitude to Professor A. D. Sahasrabudhe, Director and Professor B. B. Ahuja, Deputy Director, also the former Directors, Professor V. K. Kokate and Professor A. A. Ghatol of the College of Engineering, Pune for the constant support and permission for conducting my research.

I am thankful to Dr. Mrs. C. M. Deshpande, Head, Department of Mathematics, College of Engineering, Pune for her support during the final stages of the submission of my Thesis. I am also thankful to my friends, colleagues in the College of Engineering, Pune for supporting me during my research work.

During the period of my research work, I enjoyed the company of my friends Santosh Dhotre, Dr. Vinayak Joshi, Rupesh Shewale, Manish Aglave, Nilesh Mundlik and Pirouz Naiyer.

Above all I must not forget to render affectionate gratitude to my wife Simantini, daughter Preeti and son Pranav for bearing with me all through my period of research work.
