ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Guru Brahma, Guru Vishnu, Guru Devo Maheshwarha,
Guru Sakshat Param Brahma Tatsmay
Shree Guruve Namaha.

It is an omniscient belief from ancient era that every human being have three types of depths which he or she may be never pay off and those are the depth of Parampujya Guru, Mata and Pita. Therefore here first of all it is my duty to show my deep gratitude towards Parampujya Gurudevta Kalavati Aai, whose forever blessings are always with me in this strenuous path of research work.

Secondly, I express my gratitude towards the Chancellor, honorable Shri. Vinod Tibrewala and the Registrar Dr. Balkishanji Tibrewala of our reputed Jagdishprasad Jhabarmal Tibrewala University. Jhunjhunu. Rajasthan who selected me as a research scholar for Ph.D. and provides a precious opportunity to me. I am equally grateful to the respected Research Committee Members, who provided their scholarly guidance from time to time and dignity related with the specific area of my research. Therefore I must express my deeply gratitude towards the respected Coordinator Dr. Abhiranjan Kumar, Dr. Snehalata Shekhawat, Dr. Anju Singh and of course all the dignitaries of J.J.T. University. Jhunjhunu. Rajasthan especially for their valuable critical remarks and proper guidance without that the arduous and laborious way of research is impossible.

Thirdly, foremost I would like to express whole heartedly my gratitude towards my respected Supervisor Dr. P.R. Bhabad, Principal and Head of the Department of English at Arts, Science and Commerce College, Nandgaon. Dist Nasik. (M.S.). He always encouraged, guided and initiated me for the detail study of my research area. I am fortunate enough because I got an opportunity to have studied under his systematic and scholarly supervision. He always inspired me to do research in a suitable direction, obviously this direction is very much helpful for me to decrease the curies in my research work, naturally his supervision and guidance is very much helpful to improve the qualitative approach of my research. Therefore, I could not expect having better mentor and supervisor for my Ph.D. research work like him. So here again I express my special thanks towards honorable Prin. Dr. P.R. Bhabad.

Further more I deeply indebted to the honorable Chairman of Citizen Welfare Education Society- Dr. Manzoor Hasan Ayyubi, respected Mrs. Parveen Ayyubi and the Principal of Dr. M.H.A. Jr. College of Education Mrs. Barkati Farhat and Dr. M.H.A. Sr. college of Education. Dr. Shahid Ansari for providing me their consent, time to time support and motivation for this research work. I am equally grateful to other respected dignitaries from whom I got critical advice and guidance; therefore I am sincerely thankful towards Principal of M.S.G. College, Malegaon. Dr. S.N. Nikam, Dr. R.N. Shirsath, Dr. D.R. Patil, Dr. Sajjan Thool, Y.C.M. Open University Nashik. Prof. Deepanjali Borse, Prof. B.M. Sonawane, Shri. K.N. Ahire, Shri. V.S. Shewale. Due to their expert guidance and encouragement, I am able to overcome the difficulties faced in this laborious way of research.

The struggler is successful in his or her combat with life only if person got time to time moral support from his or her family. Therefore I shall be failure in my duty if in case I do not express wholeheartedly my gratitude towards my family. Especially my father-in-law Prof. B.G. Mahale, mother-in-law Mrs. Usha Mahale, my father shri- M.T. Desale, mother Nila Desale and all my relatives who consistently motivated me and having shared all my tensions and bearings with the inconvenience caused due to my anxiety related with the research work. Therefore, without the benediction of all these elders this research work is not imagined.
Special thanks goes towards my husband respected Mr. Bhushan Bhanudas Mahale, who has been persistent source of inspiration for my seek. It was his punctual enthusiasm and moral support that encouraged me to complete this research work in durable time. Apart from that my sweet and lovely thanks goes towards my tender son, dear Pradyumna, even he is too small but he co-operate me a lot for not disturbed me during my research study and take care of me all the time through which I got solace.

Lastly I am very much thankful to the J.J.T. University library Staff for the co-operation for the detail study of reference work. Again I very much thankful to the librarians. Mr. S.M. Wagh of M.S.G. Senior College Malegaon and Mr. S.M. Shewale. Librarian of Dr. M.H.A. college of Education for giving their consent specially for all the time library work, without that the detailed study of research area was impossible. Apart from that I am equally grateful towards Heramb Computer instructor Mr. Prashant Nikam and Mrs. Deepali Prashant Nikam who handled all the technical sides of this research work. Therefore I am very much thankful towards them. Lastly by inadvertence those are remaining, who inspired and guided me in this research work. I am equally grateful towards them. I am overwhelmed by the above experience and want to say that due to all of these dignitaries only.

THE IMPOSSIBLE HAS FINALLY HAPPENED
