ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am indebted to my teacher and research guide Dr Silvia M. De. Mendonca Noronha, Reader and Head, Department of Economics, Goa University for her wholehearted and continuous motivation, encouragement, undying patience and valuable advice throughout my research work. She has been my guiding light in various ways and I shall always be indebted to her for all her advice and prayers. I also extend my thanks to her family for their good wishes and prayers.

I thank the staff of the Department of Economics, Goa University, for their wholehearted support and valuable advice during the seminar presentations and during the course of the research.

I would also like to thank the various Principals of Government College of Arts and Commerce Pernem, Dr Sangodkar, Dr Fernandes, Shri Nayak and Shri Noronha, for their help, advice and support during my research period.

I also acknowledge the support of the staff of the Government College of Arts and Commerce, Pernem, who have always motivated, inspired and advised me when I was in doubt. I would like to especially thank Mr Prassana Mayekar for all the help he has given me in computerising my work, and Mr Pramod Kerkar, the Librarian of the college for all the help in getting the books.

I am indebted to all the employees of the industrial estates, who have responded to my request and provided me with valuable data without which this research would not have been possible.

A big thanks goes to the Librarians and the staff of all the libraries, visited in Goa and out of Goa for the literature survey. The library staff of the following institutions in Goa extended their full support and cooperation in providing me with the published materials for the research topic. Goa University, Government College of

I also thank the librarians and the staff of the libraries visited outside Goa which include: University of Bombay, Mumbai, SNDT library, Mumbai, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, IGIDR library, Mumbai, Mysore University Library, Bangalore University Library, Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bangalore, Dharwad University Library, Agricultural University library, Dharwad, Centre for Development Research, Dharwad, V.V.Giri National Labour Institute, Noida, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi.

A big thanks also goes to my father Mr. Jose Alfredo De Abreu and to my mother Mrs. Euphemia De Abreu, for their wholehearted support and constant prayers and help during my research period.

A big thanks and endless gratitude goes to my brother Shri Jose Augusto De Abreu, who, despite his extremely busy schedule and pressures of his own, has kindly edited my work. I thank him for his valuable help especially during the final phase of the thesis, when his presence was most required.

I also thank all those who in one way or the other encouraged, helped or commented on my work, and last but not the least I would like to thank God for blessing this work. Without His blessing this work would not have seen the light of day.

NIRMALA DE ABREU