ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Investigator expresses his deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to his guide and supervisor Dr. S. RAJASEKAR Professor, Department of Education, Annamalai University, Chidambaram for his able guidance, critical comments and valuable suggestion which enabled me to have clear and logical insight into the area of my research. It is indeed a privilege to be under his dedicated care and constant exhortation towards achieving perfection.

The Investigator wishes to convey his deep sense of gratitude to Dr. N.O. Nellaiappan Professor and Head of Department of Education, Annamalai University for providing all the necessary help and facilities to accomplish the work.

The investigator is very much thankful to Prof. Dr. K. NAGARAJAN Former Principal Sri Angalamman College of Education for his continued encouragement and help when the research work was in progress.

I also express my thanks to Dr. D. KUMARAN, Former Professor and Head of Department of Education, Madras University for his continued encouragement and help, When the research work was in progress.

The investigator wishes to express his gratitude and special thanks to S. NATARAJAN former Professor, IASE – Chennai-15, for encouraging and internally motivating throughout the period of study and for providing study materials to completed the project in a successful way. I am also thankful to Mr. C.R MANIVASAGAM, former office- Superintendent of Meston College of Education for his continued encouragement and proof reading this work.

I acknowledge with thanks for the words of encouragement rendered by Principal and heads of various institutions and Student teachers who co-operated in this research investigation.

Lastly, I owe an incalculable debt to my wife and parent’s for their constant encouragement and moral support.