1. Place of Origin of the workers of Meghna and Birla Jute Mill.

2. The distribution of workers according to religious groups.

3. Distribution of Hindu Workers according to cases.

4. Distribution of Workers' households according to type of the family.

5. Distribution of Workers' households according to the size of family.

7. Educational status of the workers.

8. Distribution of Workers according to the type of migration.

10. Distribution of workers according to the various reasons of migration from their ancestral place to the jute mills.

11. The source by which the worker obtained his job in both mills.

12. Distribution of the workers' households according to the available housing facilities.

13. Housing density of the workers' households.

14. Ownership status of accommodation of the Workers' households.

15. Type of houses of the workers households according to the building materials used.

17. The pattern of income of the workers' households.

18. Indebtedness pattern of the workers households.

19. The reasons behind indebtedness of the workers.
20. Number of strikes and lock-outs faced by the workers.
21. Causes of Physical stresses as perceived by the workers of jute mills in the workplace.
22. Numbers of accidents faced by the workers.
23. Fertility pattern of the workers: number of conceptions.
25. Fertility pattern of the workers: Child mortality.
27. Past morbidity of the members of the workers households.
29. Morbidity pattern of the members of the workers households.
31. The different type of health care facilities available to the workers of the jute mills.
32. Different types of medicines used by the workers of jute mills.

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY