ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a great debt of gratitude to my guide, Professor M. N. Patel for the invaluable guidance, constructive comments, motivation, useful suggestions, encouragement and support that I have received from him to carry out this work successfully.

I would like to acknowledge my debt to the entire staff of department of statistics, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad.

Special thanks to the head of the department Prof. (Dr.) R. G. Bhatt for extending her co-operation and giving me various facilities in the department to enable me to carry out this work.

I am thankful to Prof. A. V. Gajjar, Ex- head of the department of Statistics, Gujarat University for his immense help in giving constructive suggestions on the subject matter.

This work would not have been possible without the support, which I have received from my college.

I am grateful to Rev. (Fr.) Francis Parmar, Principal, St. Xavier’s College for his kind co-operation to grant me study leave to complete my research work.
I wish to express my gratitude to Rev. (Fr.) Vincent Braganza, vice – Principal, St. Xavier’s college for extending his help for study leave.

Special thanks to all my colleagues, Dr. U. B. Gothi, Mr. B. B. Bhadauria and Anshuya Verma, whose support was a great help in enabling me to complete this work.

I would also like to express my appreciation to the U.G.C. (Western Zone) for granting me study leave of one and a half year to complete this assignment under “Teacher’s fellowship”.

I am deeply indebted to my sisters Seema and Meena and my in-laws for their constant encouragement and inspiration.

On a personal note, I would also like to express my thanks to all my friends and well wishers, Dr. Urvi Chhaya, Ami Bhatt, Soni Sonal, Leena and Dr. Nirmal Desai. Sincere thanks to Prof. Chandresh of computer department, Mr. Shailesh Parmar and Deepakbhai for their help in computer programming.

Last but not the least I wish to thank my husband Francis for his constant moral support and encouragement. Without his support, help and motivation this assignment would not have been a success.
