This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not travelled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, colleagues, friends, and many others. At the end of my thesis I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay honour to my research supervisor, Dr. Dinabandhu Sahoo. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learnt a lot. His unflinching courage and conviction will always inspire me, and I hope to continue to work with his noble thoughts.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. S.C. Bhatla, Head, Department of Botany, University of Delhi, Delhi, for providing necessary infrastructure and resources to accomplish my research work.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge the University Grant Commission (UGC), Government of India, New Delhi, for providing financial assistance in the form of Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship (RGNF) which buttressed me to perform my work comfortably.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. Abhiram Seth and Mr. Arun Patnaik of Aquagri Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India for sharing some informations as well as extending unconditional support in field at Mandapam during my study period without which it would have been difficult to carry out the work. I express my gratitude to Mr. S.K. Dass, Mr. Suresh Vig, Mrs. Neena and Mr. Mukesh Chauhan, Department of Botany, University of Delhi for their cooperation.
My sincere expression of thanks are due to staff members of USIC, University of Delhi for FTIR facilities and AIIMS, New Delhi for allowing me to use the Electron and Scanning Microscopy facilities.

I am indebted to my seniors Dr. Nivedita Sahu, Dr. Debasish Sahoo, Dr. Pooja Baweja, Dr. Saswati Nayak, Dr. Anshuman for their valuable suggestions and special care during my research work from the beginning; enriching me with their research paper and knowledge. On this occasion I would like to acknowledge the overwhelming support from all my colleagues Dr. Sreekanth, Ms. Geetanjali, Mr. Savindra kumar, Ms. Salam Sonia Devi, Mr. Gaurav Kumar, Ms. Priyanka, Mr. Vivek, Mr. Arvind, Mr. Nitin, Ms. Tashi Angmo and Ms. Shivani Mishra for their unconditional help, healthy criticism and encouragement during drafting and redrafting of manuscripts.

I expand my thanks to P. Murugan (Research Fellow) CAS Botany, University of Madras, Chennai, who shared his residence with me during my stay in Mandapam, Tamil Nadu and extended brotherly love towards me.

I would also like to extend huge warm thanks to my brothers Capt. Gagarin, Lalit, Gojendro and Sulan. I am also indebted to some of my good friends Wilson, Romison, Premchandra, Ranjan and Robi for their help and support.

Last but not least, I would like to pay high regards to my parents for their sincere encouragement and inspiration throughout my research work and lifting me uphill this phase of life. I owe everything to them. Besides this, several people have knowingly and unknowingly helped me in the successful completion of my thesis.
