ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed and learned guide Prof. J.R. Dheer, Former Chairman and Dean, Faculty of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for his constant inspiration, constructive criticism, valuable suggestions and scholarly guidance to complete this thesis.

I am grateful to Prof. R.S. Yadav, Chairman, Department of Education and Prof. Sushama Sharma, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for their sympathetic attitude and providing me necessary facilities in the department.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. S.M. Gupta, Former Chairman and Dean, Faculty of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra who principally helped me to complete this study. He initiated me into the research and rendered valuable help at each stage of the present work.

I also express my sincere gratitude to the Directorate of Distance Education, Sikkim Manipal University, Manipal (Karnataka) and Lovely Professional University, Phagwara (Punjab), my previous and present employers respectively, for making various online as well as offline resources available at my disposal during the conduct of the study. My heartfelt thanks to my elder Brother Mr. Balwinder Pal, my dear friend Mr. Rajiv Mishra and my ex-colleague Mr. Subhahaba Pal for the great help extended by them in the conduct of study in different schools, in paper publications and in statistical analysis respectively.

My deep sense of gratitude to my revered parents, my loving wife Shalini and my darling daughters Krishya and Kshirin, for their unconditional love and support which kept me inspired throughout the study.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to all my colleagues, friends, heads of the institutions, staff members, health care providers, students and their parents/ guardians involved in the study for their co-operation at different stages of the present study.
