Acknowledgment

I have no words to express my heartfelt thanks to my supervisor Dr. Sudha Pai, who always took keen interest in guiding my thesis. Her scholarly comments and cooperative approach helped me in completing this research assignment. A deep debt of gratitude is owed to the present chairperson, Prof. Balveer Arora who extended his time to me for occasional consultations and guidance. It was Prof. Kuldeep Mathur who explored the possibility and importance of doing research on this particular topic. Therefore this work would become meaningless if my sincere thanks are not expressed to him. I am obliged to Prof. C.P. Bhambri, an eminent political scientist and Prof. A.K. Ray, my affectionate teacher in the post graduate studies. Prof. S.N. Jha who guided my M.Phil dissertation in fact gave me a foundation on research methods and techniques of the social sciences which have been helpful to me for the present research programme.

This work would remain incomplete if my gratitude is not expressed to the neo-literates with whom I interacted as a part of my interview programme in order to explore the impact literacy movement has brought about among them. The cooperative approach extended to me by the officials of the district administration is to be highly appreciated and my discussion with them has revealed many fascinating facts. A discussion and subsequent interview with the intellectuals and scientists who spearheaded the movement as members of KSSP was extremely fruitful. In this context, I cannot forget to express my thanks to other volunteers of the movement who cooperated with me at every level of my research to give the maximum information about the structure of implementation organisation and the techniques followed to implement it.

I am also obliged to express my gratitude to the following Libraries and staff members who extended their cooperation in the collection of the data -- (1) Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, New Delhi (2) Nehru Memorial Library, Teen Murti House, New Delhi (3) National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration, New Delhi (4) National Literacy Mission, New Delhi (5) National Institute of Adult Education, New Delhi (6) Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi (7) Kerala State Archives, Trivandrum ((9) Centre for Development Studies, Trivandrum and (10) Kerala University Library, Trivandrum.

Finally, I am thankful to my parents and close friends who have always helped me in various ways without which it would have been difficult for me to complete this work. Besides this, I would like to express my gratitude to the typist who did this typing neatly in time.
