Acknowledgements

I would like to express my immense indebtedness to my kind teachers, colleagues, collaborators and friends:

Firstly, I am profoundly obliged to my research supervisor, Prof. Yajurvedi H.N, for giving me the opportunity to undertake my PhD work under his excellent expertise and valuable guidance. I am thankful for his advice, invaluable discussions, insightful comments and heartening encouragement.

I am thankful to former chairpersons, Prof. S. N. Hegde, Prof. Prakash R. Naik, Prof. S. R. Ramesh, Prof. Shivabasavaiah, and Prof. Sadanand M. Yamakanamaradi, and present chairman Prof. V. A. Vijayan for providing facilities to conduct my work successfully. Advice and suggestions of Doctoral committee members in conducting my research work are gratefully acknowledged. I extend heartfelt thanks to the entire Teachers of Zoology department for their encouragement and non-teaching staff of the department for their timely help.

Special thanks goes to Prof. B. S. Vishwanath, Prof. Karuna Kumar M, Dr. Gopal Marathe, DOS in Biochemistry and Prof. Ravi, DOS in Statistics for their help and encouragement.

I am grateful to Prof. K. Loknath Rai, DOS in Chemistry, for his guidance and help in solvent extraction procedures and isolation of active compound in ashwagandha. Without his guidance and encouragement, this work would not have been made possible.

I would like to acknowledge the award of a fellowship under the Institution of Excellence scheme by Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, through the University Grants Commission to University of Mysore, Mysore.

I would like to thank my friends Nirupama R, Nirupama M, for their endless support and help and for being there for me when I needed them. I also take this opportunity to acknowledge my friends Mrs. Nada, Mr. Khaleed, Manjunath M, G, Divyashree S, Girish Chandran, Austin Hasan, Harish G, and Yeri Swamy for their support.
It is my great pleasure to extend my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Rakesh Sharma for his constant advice, support and encouragement. I am highly thankful to him for being such a critic and for enlightening me on different aspects of science which motivated me to drive into research.

Lastly, I thank my Mom, Dad and brothers Mahesh, Mahendra and sister Parvathi for their support, love, and embrace, for the wings they provided me to grow under, through all my years.

……………..Thank you all

Place: Mysore

(Devaki, M.)
Dedicated to

My beloved
Mom
&
Dad