ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Each project in life time gets completed with the help of many persons and organizations acting as mentors or sources of information and inspiration. Doctoral thesis is one such effort where the candidate relies on some key persons and organizations without whose help research cannot be complete. I tender my thanks from the core of my heart to the following most important persons who have great role to play in completing my doctoral work.

I will always remain indebted to Prof. N. Narayana Sastry, Research Guide, Former Professor & Director, Institute of Development Studies, Manasagangotthari, University of Mysore, Mysore for encouraging me to pursue and complete my doctoral research on the topic ‘Impact of Accessibility on Urban Structure of Amritsar City’. He has always remained a source of inspiration to me at different stages of my research. His command over the subject matter of the thesis has been source of light whenever I fell into doubts. His thought provoking ideas on the subject have been of great help to alter the direction of research at different stages of the doctoral research. I tender my sincere gratitude to him for his priceless contribution throughout the journey of my research.

I am grateful to Director, Institute of Development Studies, Manasagangotthari, University of Mysore, Mysore for giving me the opportunity to complete my research in the Institute in the most congenial manner. His upmost efforts to facilitate me with the required infrastructure in the University, whenever, required is worth appreciation. I register my hearty thanks to his much needed help during the course of conducting the present research.

I am extremely thankful to Chairman, Board of Studies, Institute of Development Studies, Manasagangotthari, University of Mysore, Mysore, for giving me this opportunity to present my research for appraisal and suggestions by the members of Board of Studies. I tender my acknowledgments to Prof. T. M. Mahesh, Dr. A. Shankar, and Dr. H. N. Nagendra for their support and suggestions during my doctoral research. I am thankful to other faculty members of the Institute of Development Studies, Manasagangothari, University of Mysore, Mysore for their timely support whenever required. My special thanks to Sh. Kumara H. S., Assistant Professor in the institute for extending all possible help and moral support to complete the formalities of the University to submit my thesis. My sincere gratitude to him for his sincere efforts.

I don’t have words to extend my hearty thanks to Prof. Dr. A. S. Brar, Worthy Vice Chancellor, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar whose thought provoking and highly inspiring speeches and suggestions for quality research have always made me setting targets to complete my doctoral research despite my busy and hectic work schedule. I will fail in my duty if I do not place on record that his efforts have brought fruits to the present research tree. I am again thankful to him.

My gratitude to Prof. B. R. Batra (Retd.) and Prof. Sarup Singh (Retd.) for their support and suggestions during my research from time to time. My special thanks to Prof. Manjit Singh (Retd.), Guru Ramdas School of Planning, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for clarifying my thoughts on the concepts and parameters of urban structure and their possible relationships with transportation and accessibility indices. I am also, indebted to my colleagues at my work place for encouraging me to complete my doctoral research work. I register my sincere thanks to them.

I am extremely thankful to Sh. D. S. Meshram (Retd.), Chief Town Planner, Town and Country Planning Organisation, New Delhi and President, Institute of Town Planners India, New Delhi for encouraging and inspiring to complete my research. I am thankful for his help and support at different moments of journey of my research.
I am sincerely thankful to Sh. J. B. Kshirsagar, Chief Town Planner, Town and Country Planning Organisation, New Delhi, for being a continuous source of inspiration to complete my research. His timely support at initial phase of my research and instructions to submit my research are unforgettable.

My hearty thanks to Dr. S. K. Kulshreshtha, visiting Professor, School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi for his timely help whenever I needed it.

My special thanks to officials of Amritsar Municipal Corporation, Amritsar; Office of District Town Planners, Town and Country Planning Department, Amritsar; District Collectorate’s Office, Amritsar; and State Public Works Department, Patiala for providing me the best possible data for my research whenever required.

I am grateful to Mr. Y. Ramesh, Ex. Incharge, CASS, School of Planning and Architecture, New Delhi for developing algorithm to calculate accessibility indices through shortest path. My special thanks to Sh. Amolak Singh, Assistant Town Planner, Town and Country Planning Department, for extending his timely help in working out inter-nodal distances between the nodes selected for the purpose. I am sincerely thankful to Mr. Arsh Doda, Student, B. Tech (Urban and Regional Planning), Guru Ramdas School of Planning, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for extending his help in generating maps in GIS environment.

My special thanks and gratitude to Sh. Karamjit Singh Sandhu, Faculty, Guru Ramdas School of Planning, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for continuously hammering me to complete my doctoral research.

My hearty thanks to my close friends and students who have always been courteous to extend their help and support during my research work. Naming a few and forgetting someone will not be justified. So, I tender my sincere gratitude to all of them for keeping me targeted to complete my research.
I am indeed indebted to my wife Ms. Simmi, Children Mr. Jalsut Luthra, Ms. Nishtha and Mr. Akshit Luthra for always supporting me in every sphere of my life, especially while travelling this path of doctoral research, which was not so easy for me due to some odds. My gratitude to my sisters, brothers-in-law, in-laws and relatives for continuously praying for me to be the first one in our family to attain a doctoral degree.

My late father, Sh. Jagjit Singh Luthra, is the director of my studies, especially my doctoral research. His untimely death delayed the completion of my research as I had to look after the family matters for which I was never prepared in my young age. This thesis is dedicated to my father for his dream. I wish his blessings from heaven for successfully completing his dream project.

My mother, Ms. Naresh Kumari, is my mentor for the present research because it has been her blessings due to which I am able to complete this doctoral research. Her sacrifices are commendable in the course of my doctoral research and in graduating all my family members including my father. May almighty blesses every one mother like the one I am blessed with.

In the end I tender my hearty gratitude to the ALL Mighty who gave me health, courage, thoughts, stability and resources to complete my research with full dedication and devotion. I wish the GOD to extend me his blessings to do well in life.
