

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Dr. B. ALWIN PRAKASH, Professor, Department of Economics, Calicut University has been my supervising teacher and guide for the conduct of this research work. I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks for the whole-hearted encouragement, help and inspiring guidance that I received from him. I am also grateful to Prof. P.P. Pillai, Head of the Department of Economics, Calicut University who had encouraged me to undertake this study.

I express my gratitude to Dr. R.V. Jose, Head of the Department of Economics, C.M.S. College, Kottayam and to my colleagues Shri. George V. Kallarackal, Shri. Varghese Eapen, Dr. Tomy Mathew, Shri. P.C. Andrews, Smt. Merry Eapen and Smt. Anamma Joseph who had helped me at the various stages of this study. My thanks are also due to Shri. P.A. Joseph, Shri. Vasudevan Nampoothiri, Shri. K.T. Mani, Shri. Kurian Thomas, Shri. M.R. Renukumar, Shri. Joseph Mathew and Miss. T.V. Geethadevi for their co-operation and help in the conduct of this work.

In all the stages of this study Miss. T.V. Ushadevi has helped me very much. With sincere gratitude I acknowledge the whole hearted co-operation and help she had rendered.

I extend my sincere thanks to Smt. Chinnu Thomas for her assistance in the collection and processing of primary data. I am also thankful to all the paddy farmers in Kuttanad who had co-operated with our field investigation.

Finally, I express my thanks to Sri. K.N. Remesh and Sri. K.P. Binukumar of Triple K Computers, Kumaranalloor, Kottayam for the neat execution of the printing work.

P.M. THOMAS