ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, the researcher gratefully acknowledges her profound gratitude and sincerely attributes this success to Prof. N.B. Biswas, Dean, A.M. School of Educational Sciences, Department of Education, Assam University, Silchar for his untiring patience, able guidance, instinctive philosophy, kind precepts and counsels, valuable suggestions who meticulously supervised, encouraged and constantly rendered help at every stage of this work and for the completion of this study without which this work would not have materialized.

The researcher also likes to express her heartfelt thanks to Dr Nil Ratan Roy, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, Assam University for his constructive guidance, supervision, encouragement, understanding and personal attention during the entire period of research.

The researcher expresses her indebtedness to the all the faculty members, Department of Education, Assam University, Silchar for their continuous encouragement, valuable suggestions and support during this research work.

The researcher extends her thanks to the Library staffs of different libraries like- NCERT Library, NUEPA Library, NEHU Library, GU Library, AUS Library and KUK Library for their active cooperation and help.

A number of person contributed to the successful completion of this investigation in different ways among them Mrs. Swapna Neog, Ajanta Dutta
Bordoloi, Sadanada Payeng (Mama), Jaya, Lipi, Putu are greatly acknowledged.

The researcher also likes to express her heartfelt thanks to her beloved parents and elder brother and sister (Tonmoy Nath and Lakhimi Nath) for their inspiration, blessing and constant help for her study. Their blessing is the cosmic force compelled the researcher to complete the present study.

Tribeni Devi