ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Completion of this doctoral thesis was possible with the support of several people. The investigator would like to express his sincere gratitude to all of them. First of all, he is extremely grateful to his research guide, Dr. N.G.Kannur, Chairman, University College of Physical Education, for his valuable guidance, scholarly inputs and consistent encouragement he has received throughout the research work. This feat was possible only because of the unconditional support provided by him. A person with an amicable and positive disposition, he always made himself available to clarify his doubts despite his busy schedules and investigator considers it a great opportunity to do his doctoral programme under his guidance and to learn from his research expertise. The investigator thanks his research guide Dr.N.G.Kannur for his help and support.

The investigator is extremely grateful to Professor Dr. P.K Tiwari, Director of Physical Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad. He had been very encouraging and supportive throughout the research period. So the investigator expresses his sincere gratitude to him.

The investigator expresses his thanks to the faculty members of the university who had been very kind enough to extend their help at various phases of this research, whenever he approached them. Hence the investigator hereby acknowledges the help rendered by all of them. He thanks Dr.C.R.Bhaireddy, Dr.M.S.Pasodi, Dr.A.K.Shakeel and Dr.H.S.Jange for their valuable suggestions and concise comments on this thesis during colloquium which inspired him a lot to improve the thesis.

The investigator would like to thank Dr N.Chandrappa Associate Professor, Dept. of studies in Physical Education and Sports Sciences, for he has been very kind and patient and always ready with a willing to lend his service whenever approached him and appreciate him for all his efforts.

The Investigator owes a lot to Shri Vijay Kumar, Retired Superintendent of Police and Dr.Ambujakshi.N.L who encouraged and helped at every stage of his personal and academic life and longed to see this achievement come true.

The investigator thanks his father-in-law Late Shri Adiveppa Kondagulikar and mother-in-law Smt. Tarabai Kondagulikar for their wonderful support and encouragement throughout his research work. He also thanks to his brothers-in-law Dr. Chandrasheker A K, and Shri. Mallikarjun A K for their constant inspiration in preparing this thesis.

Words cannot always express feelings or capture thoughts. Investigator’s deepest and greatest gratitude goes to his brother Shri V.M. Jyoti Deputy Superintendent of Police for his solid support, love, strength, consistent, encouragement, belief in my ideas, my writing, my thinking, and his inspiration for the last thirty years. However the completion of this Ph.D. represents a special moment and accomplishment for the investigator more importantly than others.

Finally, the investigator is delighted and feels extremely lucky to acknowledge in this thesis his great family: his parents, his sisters Smt. Chitramma Jyoti, and Smt. Bharathi Jyoti, brother-in law Shri Vaijinath Uppnor and Shri Vijay Kumar, his sister-in law Smt. Surekha, Dr. Komala and Smt Sonibala, his beloved brothers Dr. Jagadiesh Jyoti and Dr. Buddha Prakash Jyoti whose support and love are boundless. The investigator thanks him for his words “there is no substitute for hard work”. His words have been very important to investigator in the past year and, a source of strength for him in finishing his thesis. The investigator considers him the luckiest in the world to have such a supportive family, standing behind him with their love and support.

The investigator extends warm thanks to Balu, Tinkoo, Asith, Amitha, Joy, Nikoo, Vicky, Gautami, Arahant and Athadeep for their love.
The investigator thanks Kumari Anusuya, sister-in-law who sacrificed her needs and provided unconditional love and care to him and his daughter. The investigator would not have made it this but for her presence.

The investigator would like to express his special thanks to his beloved wife Dr. Indira Jyoti and to his beloved daughter Shikha Pragnya Jyoti, who always cheered him up and for their kind co-operation and encouragement in the completion of this thesis.

The investigator dedicates the completion of this Ph.D. to his parents, father Shri Manikrao Jyoti and mother Smt Sharanamma Jyoti for their hard work and strong commitment to his education; for their strong beliefs that education is about humanity, life, and growing; for their high expectations and belief in him to achieve this goal and for their strength and love which always encouraged him to pursue anything of his own choice and his passion.

The investigator owes it all to Almighty Lord Buddha for bestowing the wisdom, health and strength him to undertake this research task and enabling him to fulfill his dreams.

Finally, investigator would like to thank and apologize to those whose names are not mentioned here, somehow or the other despite their help and support to investigator to complete this thesis.
