LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 3.1: Growth of Engineering students in Maharashtra........................................73
Figure 3.2: Brief outline of the Structure of Technical Education in India........................74
Figure 4.1: Skills considered important for placement..................................................107
Figure 4.2: Speaking Skills Needs and Lack.................................................................131
Figure 4.3: Listening Skills Needs and Lacks.................................................................132
Figure 4.4: Writing Skills Needs and Lacks.................................................................132
Figure 4.5: Reading Skills Needs and lack.................................................................133
Figure 4.6: Skills Specified in a sample of 100 job Advertisements.................................139
Figure 4.7: Satisfaction with the course content........................................................146
Figure 4.8: Ability to use English in future.................................................................147
Figure 4.9: Satisfaction with the length of the course................................................147
Figure 4.10: Enough housing Communication Skills course per week............................148
Figure 5.1: The Model Syllabus................................................................................217