ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I express my profound gratitude to the Almighty God who paved the way for me to carry out this research work successfully.

I feel privileged to express my sincere regards and gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Jasmindeep Kaur, Reader, Department of Commerce, Punjabi University, Patiala for her expert guidance, cool temperament, valuable suggestions, support, advice and continuous encouragement throughout the course of this research work. The critical comments rendered by her during the discussions are deeply appreciated.

My heartfelt thanks are to S. Harpreet Singh Arora, SWO, Lead Bank, State Bank of Patiala, Patiala without whose support this research would not have been possible. He supported me unconditionally all through my research. It is difficult to find adequate words to express my appreciation for the help given by him.

I am highly obliged to Dr. K.B. Singh, Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank, Chandigarh for providing me relevant information, valuable suggestions and generous help.

I wholeheartedly, thank the beneficiaries without whose co-operation this research could not be completed.

I am also grateful to branch managers of the selected banks and other bank officials of Amritsar, Ludhiana, Jalandhar and Patiala districts for providing an access to the data and information.

I am highly obliged to Dr. Rajeev Kansal, Head, Department of Commerce, Punjabi University, Patiala for his support extended to me at certain stages of this research work. I am thankful to all the faculty members of commerce department for providing me encouragement and valuable suggestions for carrying out my research work. I am also grateful to non-teaching staff for helping in various proceedings of my research work.

I am thankful to Sh. Subhash Rahi of School of Management Studies, Punjabi University, Patiala who did the editing work of my thesis with great proficiency.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge the profound debt I owe to my parents for their blessings which made the things easier for me to achieve this arduous task.

I, wholeheartedly, thank my husband and mother-in law who kept me relieved from my household and social responsibilities during the long period of my study. They have been a perennial source of strength for me. I am thankful to my sweet daughter, in whose company I always felt relieved of all stress caused due to the present research work.

I acknowledge and appreciate the concern shown by my relatives, friends and colleagues about this research work. Their constant support helped me a lot.

Dated:        SILONY