ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I must place on record my sincere gratitude to one and all, those who were responsible in bringing to fruition my research work.

First and foremost let me express my deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to Dr. R. KRISHNAKUMAR, Professor, Department of Education, Annamalai University, my research guide, whose valuable suggestions and scholarly comments helped me in shaping my thesis to the present form. More than a teacher and guide he is having exemplary personal qualities of kind heartedness, transparent sincerity, genial humour, orderliness, incessant encouragement, persistence and serenity. Along with these surpassing humanness, he has been my mentor and guide and my association with him for over three decades has helped me to sharpen my intellect, sensibility and perspective.

My sincere thanks are due to all the Professors, Associate Professors and Assistant Professors, Department of Education, Manonmanium Sundaranar University for their timely help and guidance bestowed on me during the period of my research work.

I very sincerely thank the research coordinator with his kind help and guidance I could complete all my official formalities.

I sincerely thank all the principals, teachers and students of the schools where this research study has been conducted.
I humbly extend my gratitude and respect to the authorities of Manonmanium Sundaranar University for all the help given to me to carry out this research work successfully.

Last, but not the least, I should be failing in ethics if I do not put on record my deep sense of gratitude which I owe to my wife Mrs. P. Malliga and my beloved off-springs P. Anu, P. Thamayanthi and P. Chinnaiya who allowed me to work most of the time in a day, so that I may contribute whatever little I was capable of. Their self-sacrifice and love for academic pursuit have acted as a beacon of light to me.
