ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.”

John F. Kennedy

I feel blessed to have got an opportunity to acknowledge and express my gratitude to all who made it possible for me to complete this work.

At the outset, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my respected teacher and guide Dr. Naresh Kumar, Professor, Faculty of Law, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, under whose learned and sagacious guidance the present research work has been completed. I feel deeply indebted to him for the tireless effort he put in polishing and enriching this work. I extend my heartfelt thanks to him for constantly encouraging, motivating and inspiring me throughout the course of this work. He always remained very kind to make himself available in most humane, considerate, patient and cooperative manner, despite his busy schedule and extended all possible help. It may be relevant to mention here that without his thoughtful, constructive and useful suggestions it would not have been possible to give such a shape to the present research work. In fact, it is a matter of privilege and pride to have worked with Prof. Naresh Kumar and draw upon his rich experience, expertise and scholarly advice.

I also express my sincere thanks to all my teachers for their encouragement and support in completing this work. I also owe my gratitude to Dr. Promila Chugh, Head & Dean, Faculty of Law, Maharshi Dayanand University for her inspiration and encouragement in completing this work.

I am also thankful to the whole staff of Law Library and Central Library, M.D.U., Rohtak; Faculty of Law Library, University of Delhi and Indian Law Institute, New Delhi who provided relevant material to make this work more meaningful and realistic.

My deepest gratitude and thanks are due to my parents and in-laws whose blessings, love, affection, encouragement and co-operation helped me to complete this immense task.
Last, but not the least, I am thankful to my husband, Sandeep who extended his full cooperation and constant support throughout the course of this work and my little son Vidhan for stealing time from him. At last, I owe special thanks to my mother, who stood by me through thick and thin, and always encouraged me to keep going.

Dated: ...................................................... (Reetika)
Place: Rohtak .............................................. Research Scholar