I express my deep gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. Sindhe Jaganath R, Professor and Research Guide, Department of Studies and Research in Sociology, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga for his excellent guidance in completing my Ph.D. thesis. I am highly indebted and never forget to him for his co-operation, excellent guidance, valuable suggestions, support, encouragement and confidence in completing my present work.

I would like to express my heartful thanks with gratitude to my teachers Dr. S.L. Hiremath, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies and Research in Sociology, Dr. Meti Sheshan, Professor and Dr. Nusrath Fatima, Professor, Department of Sociology, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga. I am grateful for their co-operation, excellent guidance, valuable suggestions, support, encouragement and confidence in completing my present work.

This acknowledgement remain incomplete, if I would not remember to my friends especially, Smt. Jyoti Kalyanrao, Ms. Ramadevi, Ms. Surekha Subhash, Sri. Devendrappa, Sri. Sanjeev Pagargi, Sri. Sanju Kudari and Sri. Sekhara Salagar for their innumerable co-operation, support in my present work rather than, it is rightly to say that without their support, cooperation my work may be incomplete.
I am very much thankful to all the University Officials of Gulbarga University, Gulbarga and Karnataka State Women’s University, Bijapur and students and research scholars studying in these universities for their cooperation to collect the primary data required for my present work.
