ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I am highly grateful to the Almighty God, who gave me the ability and capability to take the challenge to do this Ph. D research work. I would like to express my gratitude towards Dr MV Joshi, Professor & Head, Department of Economics, Saurashtra University, Rajkot, who permitted and accepted me as a candidate for Ph. D research work. Without his approval the research work could not be started.

I take it as my duty to express my sincere thank to my guide Dr. RA Joshi, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Saurashtra University, Rajkot, who has guided me and taken keen interest in my research work. His scholarly guidance and inspiring suggestions have helped me in carrying out the present research work. Words are inadequate to express my deep sense of gratitude to him for valuable guidance for this research work. Without his able guidance my research work would have not been completed. Further, I extend my thanks to the other faculty members and staff members for their timely administrative and guidance support for my research work.

Next, I am highly indebted to my respected parents for unending motivation and support given during my research work. I found them the source of inspiration to boost my morale high. They have taken a lot of interest in my research work for motivational aspects. I would like to express my thanks to my brothers, sisters and friends for moral support in sharing my difficulties and joy during my research study. I am also thankful to those who helped me directly or indirectly during the course of my research work. Due of sincere efforts of all the above mentioned persons I found it very convenient to carry out the research work during the long period of two years and submitted my thesis well in time.
