ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost, I express my deep sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me during the course of my research. I take this opportunity to convey my thanks to my research guide Dr. M.H. Dashti for his supervision as well as constructive guidance throughout the research period. I am highly indebted to my all teachers' right from the primary school to my post graduation.

A large number of people from different institutions have been helpful to me during the course of my research work. I am thankful to the Ministry of Science, Research and Technology of Iran who have given me scholarship.

I am also grateful to Dr. Hajizadeh, Dr. Kafi and Dr. Momeni, First Secretary and Director of Science & Education section of Embassy of Iran in New Delhi, for their invaluable assistance during the course of my study.

I would like to thank the Dean, the Head and the staff of the Department of Commerce of the University of Pune and Department of Commerce of Poona College of Arts, Science and commerce, Pune.

Car manufacturer companies, Bombay Stock Exchange Market (BSE), National Institute of Bank Management (NIBM), and Capital Market” journal Office in Bombay and Pune helped me in collection of data. It was possible to complete this research only due to their cooperation and assistance. I am extremely thankful to all of them for their invaluable assistance and timely help.

I must acknowledge Professor Pablo Fernández from IESE Business School Universidad of Navarra, Dr.Ali Jahankhani, from Shahid Beheshti University of Iran, Prof. Jayanth R. Varma from Indian Institute of Management,
Mr. Thomas O'Keefe, Research Connect, Inc, Boston, MA, and Mr. Alpana Killawala from the Reserve Bank of India for their constant and valuable help.

The debt of my parents, brothers and sisters, and in laws can never be cleared. I am thankful for their continual support.

Last but not least my deepest gratitude to my wife Mrs. Leyla Gheyrati Arani, without whose guidance, patience and perseverance, the thesis would not have been completed and to my sons, Amin and Amirhossein for giving active support and forbearance throughout the work. As a token of my appreciation I, herewith, dedicate this thesis to them.
