Acknowledgement

At the outset, let me place on record my sincere thanks to my supervising teacher, Dr. U. Faisal, whose unassuming & valuable guidance throughout my research has helped me complete my work within the stipulated time. He showed exemplary patience in tolerating my idiosyncrasies of writing the thesis in conversational style rather than following the formal language structure. His promptness in giving me feedback on my rough drafts amidst all distance constraints facilitated the uninterrupted progress of the study.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. T. Asokan, Professor& Head, Department of Management Studies, Kannur University, for his timely instruction, support and for his generosity in extending the Institute’s facilities.

I would also like to thank Dr. P. T. Raveendran, Professor & Former Head, Department of Management Studies, Kannur University for his guidance. I am grateful to Dr. K.S. Chandrasekharan Nair, Kerala University in streamlining my research work in the initial stages of this thesis through his valuable suggestions. I am also thankful to Dr. P. Manoharan, Head, B.Ed Centre, Payyanur for his timely inputs regarding the Kannur University procedures.

Special mention of appreciation to Dr. Rameshwaran, Dr. Mohammed Raziq and Dr. Johnny Johnson, who were faculty members at the Department of Management Studies, Kannur University for their unremitting help and cooperation. My sincere thanks are also due to all the staff members of the Department of Management Studies, Kannur University, for their timely help and cooperation. I place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr. N. Raju, Professor & former Head, Dept of Statistics, University of Calicut, who has helped me with the SPSS analysis of the collected data.

I am extremely grateful to my schoolmate, Dr P Sooraj, Associate Professor, Govt Engineering College, Kannur who sourced a lot of research papers for me during his research at IIT Kharagpur. My acknowledgements will be hollow unless I place on record the constant motivation offered to me by my friend Sujata, her husband Sunil and his mother Padmini through their selfless efforts, during the painstakingly slow process of collecting data and editing every line of this thesis. I also thank the constant encouragement provided to me by the family of my friend Sanjay and his wife Lajna during the course of my thesis.

I also place on record the role played by my interactions with my superiors & peers while working at University of Calicut, ICFAI (Kannur & Kozhikode) & Presidency College, Bangalore in helping me complete this research work. I am grateful to the help extended by the librarians and support staff at Kannur University, University of Calicut, ICFAI, IIM Bangalore, IIM Kozhikode and also my co-researchers. My sincere thanks are due, to the staff of all the organizations who have spared time amidst their hectic work to furnish me data for my research work. My sincere thanks to the staff of M/s Padinjarekkandy, Kannur and M/s Kulthar, Kannur for the DTP and binding works.

All this would be not have been possible without the blessings of my parents, relatives, well wishers and the over pervading force of the God Almighty.
