TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTENTS</th>
<th>PAGE NO.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>i-iv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgment</td>
<td>v</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table of Cases</td>
<td>vi-xxiii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. INTRODUCTION                              | 1-22     |
   1.1 The need for a system of Public law       | 2        |
   1.2 Applicability of Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel | 9        |
   1.3 Applicability of Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation | 12       |
   1.4 Balance between Individual Interest and Public Interest | 15       |
   1.5 Nexus between the Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel and Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation | 15       |
   1.6 Application of Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel at Global Level | 18       |
   1.7 Applicability of Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation at Global Level | 19       |
   1.8 Scheme of Study                           | 21       |

2. JUDICIAL REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION | 23-86    |
   2.1 Introduction                              | 23       |
   2.2 Judicial Review in United States          | 25       |
       2.2.1 Origin                              | 25       |
       2.2.2 Impact                              | 26       |
       2.2.3 Limitation                          | 27       |
   2.3 Judicial Review in English Law            | 27       |
       2.3.1 Constitutional Position              | 27       |
   2.4 Judicial Review in India                 | 28       |
       2.4.1 Judicial Review: Object, Nature & Scope | 30       |
       2.4.2 Extent                              | 36       |
       2.4.3 Limitations of the power of Judicial Review | 39       |
   2.5 Judicial Review as a part of Basic Structure | 50       |
   2.6 Expansion of Judicial Review through Judicial Activism | 51       |
   2.7 Grounds for Judicial Review               | 53       |
2.8 Natural Justice – Habitat of Judicial Review 57
  2.8.1 Rule Against Bias 60
  2.8.2 Fair Hearing 62
2.9 Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel 63
2.10 Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation 67
2.11 Doctrine of Proportionality 71
  2.11.1 Wednesbury’s principles of unreasonableness and Proportionality 76
2.12 Doctrine of Public Accountability 79
2.13 Relevance of Judicial Review of Administrative Action 83

3. DOCTRINE OF PROMISSORY ESTOPPEL – AN INTRODUCTION 87-154

3.1 Introduction 87
3.2 Meaning and Definition 90
  3.2.1 Dictionary Definitions 91
  3.2.2 Statutory Definitions 93
  3.3.3 Judicial Definition 93
3.3 Categorization of Estoppel 96
  3.3.1 Estoppel by matter of record 97
  3.3.2 Estoppel by Deed 98
  3.3.3 Estoppel in Pais 99
  3.3.4 Proprietary Estoppel 100
  3.3.5 Promissory Estoppel 101
3.4 Promissory Estoppel – Judicial Definition under different legal systems 101
  3.4.1 The English Legal System 102
  3.4.2 The American Legal System 104
  3.4.3 The Australian Legal System 105
  3.4.4 The Indian Legal System 105
3.5 Conceptual Origin of Doctrine under various legal systems 106
  3.5.1 The English Legal System 107
  3.5.2 The American Legal System 108
  3.5.3 The Australian Legal System 109
  3.5.4 The Indian Legal System 110
3.6 Development of Promissory Estoppel in India 111
  3.6.1 Historical Retrospect 111
    A. Ancient Historical Development 111
B. Modern Development
   a. Pre – Independence 112
   b. Post – Independence 113
   i. Phase – I: Pre Anglo – Afghan 113 ii Phase – II: Anglo – Afghan and after 115
   iii Phase – III: Motilal Padampat and after 121
   iv Phase – IV: Jit Ram and after 124
   v Phase – V Godfrey Philips and after 126

3.7 Pre – existing legal relation and Promissory Estoppel 129
3.8 Detriment and Promissory Estoppel 131
3.9 Promissory Estoppel and cause of action and defence plea 134
3.10 Promissory Estoppel and Public Interest 136
3.11 Promissory Estoppel and Indian Contract Act 138
   3.11.1 Inter relation of Promissory estoppel and consideration 138
   3.11.2 Promissory Estoppel and Section 63 of Indian Contract Act 142
   3.11.3 Recommendations of Law Commission 145
3.12 The Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel – Application to Government 147

4. DOCTRINE OF LEGITIMATE EXPECTATION –
   A NEW DIMENSION OF JUDICIAL REVIEW 155-215

4.1 Introduction 155
4.2 Meaning of Legitimate Expectation 155
4.3 Historical Background of Legitimate Expectation 159
   4.3.1 Historical Background in England 159
      A. Ancient Era 159
         a. Anglo – Saxon Period 160
         b. The Norman Period 160
            i. Reign of William – I 160
            ii. Reign of Henry – II 161
            iii. Reign of Edward – I 161
            iv. Reign of Edward – II 162
      4.3.2 Natural Justice and its development 162
         A. Law of Nature is basis of law 162
         B. Law of Nature Immutable 162
         C. No man can be judge in his own cause 163
D. Conquered Country to be ruled according to Natural Equity 163
E. No one should be condemned unheard 163

4.3.3 Origin and Development of Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation 164
A. Representation to be fulfilled 167
B. Past practice to be followed 167

4.4 Historical Background of Legitimate Expectation in India 168
4.4.1 Vedic Era 168
4.4.2 Later Vedic Era 170
A. King and his duty, which was an expectation 171
B. Vashishtha 172
C. Kautilya 173
D. Manu Smiriti 173
E. Yajnavalkaya 174
F. Narad and Naradiya Dharamshastra 174
G. Shukracharyya 175
4.4.3 Medieval Period 175
A. Akbar 176
B. Jahangir 176
C. Shah Jahan 177
D. Aurangzeb 177
E. Concept of Public Trust Doctrine in Mohammedan Era 177
F. Estoppel (Bayan – daruata) 178
4.4.4 British Era 178
A. East India Company’s Rule 178
a. Charter of 1609 179
b. Charter of 1726 179
c. Charter of 1753 180
d. Regulating Act of 1773 180
e. Charter of 1833 180
f. Constitution of First Law Commission 181
i. Penal Code 181
ii. Lex Loci Report 181
iii. Code of Civil Procedure 181
B. India under the British Crown
   a. Government of India Act, 1858 181
   b. Indian Council Act, 1861 182
   c. August Declaration, 1971 182
C. Codification of Law 182
   a. Mens rea 183
   b. Principle of Legality 183
   c. General Exceptions 184
   d. Indian Evidence Act, 1872 184
   e. Motive, Preparation and Previous or Subsequent Conduct 184
   f. Indian Evidence Act and Natural Justice 185
   g. Promissory Estoppel recognized 185

4.4.5 Post – Independence Era 186
A. Constitution 186
B. Promissory Estoppel in India 187
C. Introduction of Legitimate Expectation in Indian Judicial System 187
   a. Constitutional Parameters 188
   b. The objectives and aims of the Constitution 189
   c. Preamble 190
      i. Definition 191
      ii. Contents of Preamble having Spirit of Legitimate expectation 191

4.5 Article 14 and Legitimate Expectation 196
   4.5.1 Position in India 198
      A. Duty to act fairly 198
      B. Right to Fair Hearing 199

4.6 Article 14 strikes at arbitrariness 199
   4.6.1 Rules of Natural Justice, Article 14 and Legitimate Expectation 200
   4.6.2 Prohibition of Discrimination against Citizens 200
   4.6.3 Administrative Law and its Dimensions 201

4.7 Rule of Law 201
   4.7.1 Definition 202
   4.7.2 Legitimate Expectation and Rule of Law 203
   4.7.3 The perpect of Justice associated with Rule of Law which forms basis of Legitimate Expectation 204

4.8 Locus Standi 205
  4.8.1 Meaning 205
  4.8.2 Legitimate Expectation and Locus Standi 207

4.9 Natural Justice 207
  4.9.1 Procedural Legitimate Expectation based on Principles of Natural Justice 207
  4.9.2 Natural Justice as enshrined in the Constitution 208
    A. Rule against bias 209
      a. Pecuniary 210
      b. Personal 210
      c. Policy bias 210
    B. Audi alteram partem 210
      a. Notice 211
      b. Hearing 211
      c. Right to Counsel 211
      d. Reasoned order 211
      e. One who decides must hear 212

4.10 Legitimate Expectation as a ground of Judicial Review 212

5. LEGITIMATE EXPECTATION – A CONCEPTUAL ANALYSIS 216-262
  5.1 Introduction 216
  5.2 Speculations on the provenance of the concept of Legitimate Expectation 224
  5.3 Are we concerned with the Legitimate Expectation of a boon or the Legitimate Expectation of a baring 229
    5.4 Duty to act fairly and Legitimate Expectation 235
    5.5 The Protection of Legitimate Expectation 237
    5.6 Legitimate Expectation and Natural Justice 242
  5.7 Legitimate Expectation, Estoppel and Fettering of Policy 249
    5.8 Legitimate Expectation, Procedure and Substance 256

6. GLOBAL ASPECT OF PROMISSORY ESTOPPEL AND LEGITIMATE EXPECTATION 263-342
  6.1 Conceptual origin of the Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel under various Legal Systems 263
  6.2 Development in American Legal System 264
    6.2.1 Position of Promissory Estoppel in America 264
    6.2.2 Applications of Promissory Estoppel in various fields 266
6.2.3 Pre – Existing contractual relation and Promissory Estoppel 271
6.2.4 Detriment, if as a part of Promissory Estoppel 271
6.2.5 Promissory Estoppel as a cause of action 272
6.3 Development in English Legal System 272
6.3.1 Development of the Doctrine of Promissory Estoppel through case laws 273
6.3.2 Pre – Existing Legal/ Contractual relations 283
6.3.3 Detriment if as a necessary ingredient of Promissory Estoppel 284
6.3.4 Promissory Estoppel shield sabre under the English system 285
6.4 Development in Australian Legal System 287
6.4.1 Versatility of Promissory Estoppel under the Australian Legal System 287
6.4.2 Detriment if as part of Promissory Estoppel 294
6.4.3 Pre – existing Contractual relations 295
6.4.4 Promissory Estoppel whether a shield/ sword in the Australian system 296
6.5 Conceptual origin of the Doctrine of Legitimate Expectation in various Legal Systems 298
6.6 Development in Singapore Legal System 298
6.6.1 Legitimate Expectation of a procedural right 299
6.6.2 Legitimate Expectation of a substantive benefit 300
6.7 Development in English Legal System through case study 303
6.7.1 Schmidt case 303
6.7.2 Liverpool Taxi case 304
6.7.3 McInnes case 307
6.7.4 Ng case 307
6.7.5 Khan Case 309
6.7.6 GCHQ case 310
6.7.7 Substantive Legitimate Expectation 312
6.8 Development in Canadian Legal System 312
6.8.1 Decisions of the Canadian Supreme Court 319
6.9 Development in Australian Legal System 325
6.9.1 Constitutional objections to the substantive legitimate expectation 327
6.10 Development in South African Legal System 334
   6.10.1 Decisions of the South African Supreme Court 336

7. CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS 343-365
   7.1 Conclusion 343
   7.2 Promissory Estoppel related to Legitimate Expectation 355
   7.3 Common features of Promissory Estoppel and Legitimate Expectation 356
   7.4 Differences between Promissory Estoppel and Legitimate Expectation 357
   7.5 Judicial Behavior towards both Doctrines 357
   7.6 Suggestions 363

BIBLIOGRAPHY 366-376