ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Dr. G. Viswanathappa, Senior Lecturer, Department of Education, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore, is the “Guru” who facilitated me emerge out from the cocoon – the mental set, to fly in the realms of conscious fancy – the Synectics and moulded the pursuit for knowledge, during the intellectual association for the past six years. What all a disciple can offer with a devotion is a “Bow of honour” that I wish to continue his association forever.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. K. Dorasami, Principal, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Bhubaneswar, for his encouragement in all the aspects of my intellectual pursuit.

I am thankful to Dr. Vasant D. Bhat, Professor in Education, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore and Dr. U. Lakshminarayana, Reader in Education, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Bhopal, for their right and valuable directions during the course of this inquiry.

I am highly grateful to Dr. C. Jangaiah, Senior Lecturer, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore, for his affectionate approach in guiding us all these days.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. M.S. Lalithamma, Professor, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore for her inventive and insightful guidance in designing and in executing the study.
I am highly indebted to Dr. K. Yasodhara, Professor, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore, for providing timely suggestions to do the study.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Y.N. Sridhar, Professor, Post-Graduate Department of Studies in Education, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore and Chairperson, Board of Studies in Education, for proper directions given during the study.

I am also thankful to Prof. C.S. Nagaraju, Principal, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore and Prof. G. Ravindra, Joint Director, NCERT and Former Principal, for the cooperation given in completing the study.

I must also express my sincere and heartful thanks to Dr. Manjula P. Rao, Reader in Education, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore and Dr. Anil Kumar, Lecturer in Education, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore, for their valuable guidance.

I am thankful to Shri S. Nagaraju, Librarian, Regional Institute of Education (NCERT), Mysore and equally the staff too, for their sincere help and service throughout the study.

I am no less grateful to Prof. K. Venkataiah (Retd.), Department of Education, University of Mysore, Mysore, who was kind enough to help and encouragement at all the stages of research work.

I profoundly thank Sri D. Krishna Murthy, Principal, Government Junior College, Nallamada and Sri K.C. Vannappa, Principal, Government Junior College (Boys), Kadiri for their cooperation in completing the study.
I acknowledge my indebtedness to all of the headmasters, teachers and students of the rural and urban schools where I conducted different stages of this study.

I remember unto my breath, the experimental students from rural and urban schools, without their cooperation this study might not have turned fruitful.

I express my affectionate and deeply felt indebtedness to all the panel members who not only helped me in translating the tools and in designing the synectics lesson plans and worksheets, but also in the course of treatment to experimental students.

I specially thank the students of Harish Schools and SPACE Junior College, Kadiri during the years 2003-2006 and 2004-2006 respectively. Their instinctive and insightful participation in the synectics sessions have built a lot of confidence in me.

I express my affectionate indebtedness to my brother M.S. Kiran, Head Master, Harish English Medium Schools, Kadiri for his moral support and encouragement.

I must reacknowledge my debt to all my family members, especially my spouse G.S. Saritha, Principal, Sri Padma Academy of Creative Education Junior College, Kadiri, for the moral support she continued to extend in all my efforts.

Finally, I am “Thankfully Sorry” to my children Sri Mounik and Sri Hira, for the emotional detachment they suffered during experimentation and final stages of submission of this thesis.
