Social Responsibilities Tool [draft tool]

Please make a tick [✓] mark against the statements that are appropriate in your view (respect of your feeling of responsibility)

1. If, on my way to the college, I find a person setting fire to some non-bio digestible waste which is detrimental to environmental safety,
   a) I will explore ways to escape from the smoke.
   b) I will go to him and explain how this smoke will affect the environment.
   c) As soon as I see it, I shall take diversion to avoid the smoke.
   d) I shall go confused, not knowing what to do.

2. If I see excess stagnation of rain water in my area,
   a) I will shift my residence to some other place.
   b) I will explore ways and means of preventing water stagnation near my house.
   c) As the area around my house remains neat and clean, I won’t care about it.
   d) I will clear the area of water stagnation with the help of others.

3. If I happen to find damage in public water pipe connection and are precious water flowing waste, a) I shall seek ways and means of meeting the drinking water needs of my home.
   b) I will inform the Tamil Nadu Water Supply and Drainage Board and also arrange to set right the disconnections.
   c) As my house connection is safe, I will not worry about the problem.
   d) I will remain indifferent hoping that some others will set right the disconnections.

4. If the drinking water supply in my area is not proper,
   a) I shall move to a place where there is good drinking water facility.
   b) I will not mind it as facility in my house is proper.
   c) I will inform the officials concerned and arrange for proper supply of drinking water.
   d) I will take steps to provide drinking water facility in my house.

5. If the drainage system in my area failed,
   a) I shall shift my residence to a healthy location.
   b) As long as my house is clean, I will not mind about the problem.
   c) I shall inform the officials of the Public Health Department and arrange for cleaning of the stagnated drainage water.
   d) I shall arrange for my own sanitation.

6. If, on my way, I find the opening of the underground drainage system left unclosed,
   a) I will seek ways for my safety.
   b) I will keep off the uncovered opening.
   c) I will inform the concerned department as well as arrange for closing the opening.
   d) I will just take diversion.
7. If I understand that conversion of agriculture lands as sites for building and factories will weaken the agriculture sector which plays a significant role in the economic development of the nation,
   a) As I get assumed food supply and like in a sanitary condition, I will not mind it.
   b) I will conduct awareness campaign against conversion of agriculture lands for factories and other buildings.
   c) I will be confused, not knowing what to do.
   d) As I work in a different field, I know nothing about any problem on this item.

8. If I find some factories in my area emitting smoke and releasing effluents to the extent of affecting the people and spoiling the environments,
   a) I shall change my residence to a neat place.
   b) I shall change my life style so that I and my family members are immune.
   c) I shall remain confused as to what action to be taken to control this health hazard.
   d) I shall give advice to regulate the emission of smoke and other effluents so that publics are not affected.

9. In spite of availability of toilets in bus-stand and other places, if I find people defecating on road sides, while I am on travel, a) I will at once approach them and advise them to make use of public conveniences.
   b) I will just pass out, cursing them in my heart.
   c) I will comment on the indecent behaviour and talk teasingly about such people with others.
   d) I will just ignore it and continue my travel.

10. If I am in a position to save people who are affected by flash flood,
    a) I will not go to them, fearing that I myself may be in danger.
    b) I will rush to them and try to save them.
    c) I will ensure that the flood does not affect me and my family members.
    d) I will be in an agitated condition, not knowing what to do.

11. In my destination bus-stand, if I see acts of people spitting in the bus-stand and helping their children pass urine near by,
    a) I will think that they will mistake me, if I talk to them about the unsanitary action.
    b) I will advise them to do such activities in the permitted and allotted places.
    c) I will comment against their indecent act with those around me.
    d) I will remain undecided about the action to be taken by me.

12. I used to listen to cricket match commentaries while traveling by train. If it causes disturbance to my co-passengers,
    a) I will reduce the volume of the radio.
    b) I will continue to listen, changing my seat.
    c) I will do both the above acts.
    d) I will continue listening without minding other.
13. While in a cinema house, if I feel like spitting my saliva,
   a) I shall go out and spit in the allotted place.
   b) I will think about going out and spit.
   c) On the excuse that other do spit inside the theatre, I will also do like that.
   d) I will be confused as to where to spit.

14. If a ban imposed on the use of plastic in the college campus,
   a) I will occasionally abide by the ban order.
   b) I will strictly obey the ban order and also advise others to respect the order.
   c) I will not strictly follow the order.
   d) I do not care about such ban orders.

15. Now a days, in so many houses, people use more number of two wheelers and four wheelers than required for them. This causes traffic congestion and affects natural harmony. In respect of this problem,
   a) I will arrange an awareness campaign and highlight the benefits of reducing vehicle population.
   b) I will be cursing them in my heart.
   c) I will only remain confused, not knowing how to apprise them of their objectionable habit.
   d) I do not have any vehicle and so no opinion about the problem.

16. When I see my friend mis-using drinking water for ablution, bathing and for washing clothes and vehicles,
   a) I shall remain confused as to how I can point out this mistake.
   b) I will explain to him of his mistake.
   c) I will keep indifferent, letting him do whatever he may do.
   d) I will feel unhappy about him.

17. If I happen to see a live electric wire on my way back from college, a) I will go home via an alternate route.
   b) I will inform the Electricity Board and also arrange to remove the live wire.
   c) I will be stunned, not knowing what to do.
   d) As and when I see it, I will take an about turn.

18. The government bus service to our residential area is frequently cut then,
   a) I shall shift to another place where there is good transport facility.
   b) As I possess all types of vehicles, I will not care about it.
   c) I shall inform the transport officer concerned and also take steps for resumption of regular transport facility.
   d) I shall arrange transport facility for my own conveniences.

19. Somebody has placed a block on the railway time by the way to my college with bad motive. If I happen to notice it, a) I will just pass over as it is already late for my college.
   b) I will not engage myself in any activity that may affect traffic.
   c) With the help of friends, I will remove the blockade.
   d) Fearing adverse consequences if I remove the blockade, I shall stay confused.
20. If I happen to see a hut near my residence catching fire,
   a) I will be stunned to see the fire.
   b) I will not worry as after all it is somebody else hut that is burning.
   c) Immediately I will inform the fire service.
   d) I will seek to protect my house from catching fire.

21. If it comes to my knowledge that female infanticide is happening in my area,
   a) I will remain confused, not knowing what to do.
   b) I will inform the police about the performers involved in the illegal activity and also advocate about the importance of girl children.
   c) I will never commit such errors.
   d) I will shift my residence to some other place.

22. If it comes to my notice that the sales person of the government public distribution unit unauthorisedly sells goods to other shops, a) I will report the matter to the officials of the department concerned and also picket the shop with others.
   b) I shall just ignore it to avoid unwanted problems.
   c) I will strive to get a share of the miss deal.
   d) I shall also engage myself in such anti-government activities.

23. One drunkard in our area often utters vulgar words and quarrels with other disturbing our sleep and peace. If I see it,
   a) I will shift my residence to some other place.
   b) I will go and meet him, convince him and persuade him to give up drinking intoxicants.
   c) I will do as he does.
   d) I will be indifferent, letting anybody do anything he wants.

24. If I happen to see the children employed in the guise of sales persons being misused by the employers,
   a) I will be stunned and remain confused.
   b) Immediately I will inform the police, restore the affected children to their parents and give them proper advice.
   c) I will try to get such opportunity for myself.
   d) I will not mind about it.

25. If it comes to my notice that elicits production of killer liquor is going on near the area of my residence,
   a) I will be confused as what action to take.
   b) With the help of others, destroy the illicit production centre.
   c) I shall vacate my house and settle in some other place.
   d) I will as if unconcerned fear that any interference in the illicit activity will affect me.

26. If the offence of untouchability is practised in my area,
   a) I will not care about it.
   b) I will raise my voice against the offence and fight for its eradication.
   c) I will instigate and encourage the practice of untouchability.
   d) I will seek ways and means of protecting me against the offence.
27. If I see a conflict between two parties in my area,
   a) I will not go near the site for fear of inviting unnecessary problem for me.
   b) I will call both the parties and try to reconcile them.
   c) I will enjoy seeing them fighting against each other.
   d) I will support one of the parties of my choice.

28. Street lights in my area are not switched on and off in time. In that case, a) I will report the fact to the E.B. and also see that the street lights are switched on and off in time, as may have been scheduled.
   b) I will arrange to ensure that such problems do not face me.
   c) Electric connections in my house are in that. So I will not mind about the problem.
   d) I shall shift to a place where there is guaranteed supply of power.

29. Some unscrupulous elements are adulterating essential commodities like rice, oil, dhal, etc. If I find such an activity,
   a) I will be confused not knowing what to do.
   b) I will inform the department concerned and also give advice to the offender.
   c) I will ask for an illicit share of his/her profit from the offender.
   d) I will seek ways and means of myself practicing such unfair trade practice.

30. When I see time barred medicines and groceries being traded in my area,
   a) I too will trade in such commodities.
   b) I will inform the Public Health department and strive to stop such unfair trade practices.
   c) I shall ask for a share of their profit.
   d) I will ensure that I get supply of commodities before expiry date.

31. There is not proper communication/road facility in my area. So,
   a) I will take steps to provide proper communication/road facilities to my area.
   b) Joining with the people of the area, I will take part in agitation and picketing activities.
   c) I shall shift to a place with communication/road facilities.
   d) Sufficient road facilities are already available to me so I will not care about the problem.

32. As a show of opulence rich people use electric power extravagantly illuminating their house. In such circumstances,
   a) I shall keep immune to the problem.
   b) I too will explore the ways for copying them.
   c) I will stress the need for economical use of electricity.
   d) I will curse them while talking with others.

33. Taking advantage of the absence of inmates in a nearby house, I notice thieves looting the house. Then,
   a) I will catch them with the help of others and hand them over to the police.
   b) I will help the looters and claim a share from them.
   c) I will stay stunned.
   d) I will keep indifferent as it is only some other man’s house that is being looted.
34. If I find on my way to college, some one meets with an accident and is fighting for life without any help, then,
   a) For fear of inviting unnecessary problem, I will by pass the scene.
   b) I will steal the possession of the dying man.
   c) I will give him first aid and get him admitted in a hospital.
   d) As I am hurriedly proceeding to college, I will continue my walking.

35. If one way traffic is temporarily ordered due to road maintenance work, and if I am in a hurry to go to the college, a) I will take diversion.
   b) Abide by the traffic rules and continue to proceed in the roundabout way though I know that it will take more time to travel.
   c) I will get annoyed.
   d) Overtaking other vehicles against rules, I will proceed fast.

36. If I find a person traveling with utter disregard to traffic rules,
   a) I will ignore the incidence.
   b) I will look to my own safety for traveling.
   c) I will meet the trespasser and explain about the necessity to follow traffic rules.
   d) I will also ignore traffic rules.

37. If I see a person of other religion,
   a) I will move with him/her quite freely.
   b) Though I see him/her, I will not talk to him/her.
   c) I will look down upon him/her with hatred.
   d) I will stay confused.

38. When I am living quite comfortably, I see a person who has helped me in my needy days, living in penury,
   a) As a gesture of gratitude, I will extend possible help.
   b) I will talk with reluctance.
   c) I will be ungrateful and by pass the person.
   d) I will mock at him/her.

39. When riding a two wheeler, I meet with an accident. If an unknown person helps me, a) I will thank whole heartedly and keep him/her in my life long memory.
   b) I will plan for rewarding him/her for timely help.
   c) I will proceed without thanking.
   d) I will frown at him/her for saving me.

40. If I find a blind person on my way to my college,
   a) I will guide him to his destination.
   b) I will avoid him thinking that on lookers will think low of me.
   c) Joining hands with my friends I will tease him.
   d) Thinking that it will get late to my college, if I help him, I will continue my going without break.
41. When I am walking briskly if some one dashes against me,
   a) I will keep my cool and proceed.
   b) I will request others to do justice to me.
   c) I will beat him in retaliation.
   d) I will get angry with him.

42. With the aim that the common socially should not meet with impediments, a) I will behave cautiously best I should impede the progress of the society.
   b) I will make a show of myself that I do not cause hindrances to the society.
   c) I will behave as if I am unconcerned.
   d) I will act against the society.

43. If I feel that my pay in my government job is more when compared to the service rendered by me,
   a) I shall refund such excess amount to the government.
   b) I shall keep such excess payment to myself.
   c) I will happily share the news with others.
   d) I will spend lavishly using the excess money, with my friends.

44. Generally in the society,
   a) I will be interested in the welfare of others.
   b) Whatever I need, I will receive from the society.
   c) I will work only for the welfare of my own family.
   d) I will desist from rendering any help to anybody.

45. When I get refund of excess amount on payments made for transport, electricity, communication, public distribution etc. if excess over the amount actually due to me, a) I will be in a dilemma as to whether or not repay the excess amount.
   b) I will repay the excess amount immediately.
   c) I will share the joy of having received the excess amount with my friends.
   d) I will not disclose the fact to anybody.

46. If I find, on my way to the college, glass pieces or thorns on the path,
   a) I will contemplate as if I should remove them.
   b) I will remove them and then only proceed.
   c) I will bypass them, letting others to remove them.
   d) I will continue to proceed choosing another route.

47. I possess money in excess of my needs. Then,
   a) I will plan for increasing the net excess.
   b) I will keep the excess for myself.
   c) Donate the excess for government welfare scheme.
   d) I will ensure that none is benefited by many extra incomes.

48. If I find out a treasure,
   a) I will keep it for myself without informing anybodies.
   b) I will inform and share it with them.
   c) I will be bit confused about what to do with the treasure.
   d) I will duly hand over the treasure to the government.
49. After my suggestion is called for social change and development, what strikes my mind is,
   a) Social welfare.
   b) Family welfare.
   c) Self improvement.
   d) Welfare of caste and religion.

50. If I happen to see mentally affected persons wandering about in my area,
   a) I will not go near them fearing any harm to me.
   b) I will lead them to a home for the mentally handicapped persons and get them admitted there.
   c) I will feel for them.
   d) I will tease them.

51. When I see my parents suffer due to old age,
   a) I will look after them myself.
   b) I will wait for others to take care for them.
   c) I will not bother about their predicament.
   d) I will get them admitted in a home for the aged persons.

52. If one of my regular house servants falls ill,
   a) I will continue to extract work from him.
   b) I will just ask him if he wants to go to a hospital and without waiting for a reply, I will attend to my own work.
   c) I will take him to a medical institution and give him rest and treatment.
   d) I will not bother about his sick mess.

53. When a poor and illiterate relative of mine comes to my house, a) I will receive him with pleasure, enquire about his health and provide him tiffin.
   b) Just for formality, I will receive him and escape from his presence.
   c) I will not welcome him, even formally.
   d) I will keep him outside my house and question him why he is coming to me.

54. When I happen to meet a old classmate friend,
   a) I will happily take him to my house and share with him our past remembrances nostalgically.
   b) I will leave him at the site of meeting him.
   c) I will just walk away, ignoring him.
   d) I will deviate from his presence and take a different route.

55. If a beggar comes to my house begging, when I am at my meals,
   a) I will close the door just at the sight of him.
   b) I will give the food which I was about to eat as alms to him.
   c) I will not give alms to him.
   d) I will scold him and drive him away.
56. Among the social customs in our house, if I notice any one of it based on superstition,
   a) I will not believe superstition.
   b) I am confused about it.
   c) At times I support or oppose superstition.
   d) I will raise my voice against superstition and also conduct awareness campaign.

57. Some children from poor families around me are good at their respective schools. But the parents do not have the means for sending them for higher education. I am financially sound enough to help them. In such circumstances, a) If those people are not in any way connected to me, I will not bother about them.
   b) I will like to employ them for my household work.
   c) As I live comfortably, I do not conceive any idea about a problem existing in it.
   d) I will help them to the best of my ability.

58. When I notice education being commercialized, a) As I am wealthy, I will not bother about it.
   b) I too will establish educational institutions and do business like them.
   c) By conducting awareness campaign against such evils, I will highlight the benefits of educational values.
   d) As I have already completed my course, I will not bother about this malpractice.

59. When I see child abused by shop keepers engaging children below the age of 14 as workers, a) I will redeem the children according to the provisions of Child Labour Act and give necessary advice to the parents.
   b) I will ignore the evil of torturing children.
   c) I will remain confused without knowing what to do.
   d) As I am well to do, I will not bother about it.

60. If elementary school teachers working in my area just sign the attendance and go away, or avoid teaching even when they are present, a) I will make an appeal to the Director of Elementary Education and make a request to discipline such teachers.
   b) If I get appointment as a teacher, I will question such teacher.
   c) I will take both actions.
   d) I will do neither.

61. If teasing or ragging goes on in my college,
   a) I will not join the teasers.
   b) I will seek ways of protecting me against teasing.
   c) I will take the matter to the notice of the college principal.
   d) I will remain confused not knowing what to do.
62. If some illiterate form my area enquires me about government welfare schemes,
   a) I will give them the information needed.
   b) I will send them back on the plea that I have some important/urgent work.
   c) I will deny having any knowledge about them.
   d) I will direct them to contact some one else.

63. In choosing a friend for me in my college,
   a) I will check whether he is financially sound.
   b) I will confirm whether he will support me even in my misconduct.
   c) I will check whether he is physically strong.
   d) I will verify if he is of good manners and also an intelligent chap.

64. If on completion of my course, I serve as a teacher,
   a) I will keep time in attending the school and also discharge my duties judiciously.
   b) My aim will be the salary due to me.
   c) I will desert my work, joining hands with other such teacher.
   d) I will do my work perfunctorily and according to my convenience.

65. Some students of our college instigate rebellion against the college administration. If I become aware of such circumstances,
   a) I will be unhappy about such activities.
   b) I will encourage the rebellion.
   c) I will achieve them against rebellion.
   d) I will be confused on how to deal with them.

66. If I have got a unique book that will be useful for the examination, a) I will study the book and also allow others to use my book.
   b) I will keep it to myself.
   c) I will not only keep the book to myself, but will not use it for my study also.
   d) I will not lend the book for others to study.

67. When I see two of our friends fighting with each other,
   a) I will avoid seeing the fight and leave the place.
   b) I will enjoy their fighting.
   c) I will induce them to fight more rigorously.
   d) I will inform the class teacher, and also make them stop fighting.

68. While I am traveling by a two wheeler, if I happen to see my class teacher walking, a) I will stop there and alight from my vehicle as a mark of respect and also give him a lift.
   b) I will keep riding, just extending a formal salute.
   c) I will frisk away as if I did not notice him.
   d) I will take an about turn, on seeing him.
69. If I am selected to play for my college to the exclusion of a friend of mine who is more efficient than me,
   a) I will yield my selection for the sake of my friend.
   b) I will be absent for the competition.
   c) I will not give up my selection in favour of my friend.
   d) I will not think about that friend at all.

70. When an excursion trip, if I find my friend being washed away by flash food,
   a) I will be confounded.
   b) With the help of others, I will rescue my friend.
   c) I will not inform anybody about the incident.
   d) I will leave my friend unattended, as my life is more precious to me.

71. If it comes to my knowledge that a child marriage is going on in my area, a) I will ensure that such offences do not take place in my house.
   b) I will support child marriage.
   c) I will explain to the parties concerned about the ill effects of child marriage.
   d) Without knowing whom to report about the offence, I will stay confused.

72. If I find a friend of mine using my educational tools without my knowledge and permission, a) I will be angry with him.
   b) I will make a report to the class teacher.
   c) I will be aggrieved
   d) I will give him proper choice that he should get my prior permission for such activity.

73. If sufficient basic amenities are not available in our college, a) I will be contemplating whether to report the matter to the principal of the college.
   b) I will gather other students and bring the fact to the notice of the principal.
   c) I will get a transfer to some other college.
   d) I will mind my business without worrying about it.

74. When I plan for utilising my knowledge gained in my studies,
   a) I will use it for the benefit of my family.
   b) I will make it available exclusively for the benefit of people of my own caste.
   c) I will utilize it for the welfare of the nation.
   d) I will go abroad seeking better return for my studies.

75. In respect of special children,
   a) I have not rendered any help so far.
   b) I invariably help them continuously.
   c) I will think of helping them in future.
   d) I will not mind about them.
76. If I am called for to give my option for being recruited for defence or police service,
   a) I will seek advice from others.
   b) For fear of my life, I will give negative option.
   c) I will readily give my consent.
   d) I will be confused about national defence service.

77. When a national festival is going on, if I find a traitor placing bomb, a) Fearing for my life, I will sneak away from the site without informing anybody.
   b) I will be bewildered, not knowing what to do.
   c) I will seek ways and means for my own protection.
   d) I will immediately inform the police and help the people to evaluate the place.

78. If it comes to my notice that a government official demands bribe for issuing birth certificate, community certificate, etc. from an illiterate person of my area,
   a) As the said official does not demand bribe from me, I will be minding my own business.
   b) As I am a sound footing, I will not bother about it.
   c) I will make a report to the vigilance and anti corruption department and insist that the official concerned is punished.
   d) I will be afraid that he will shirk when I need a certificate, if I point out his fault.

79. When the National Anthem is played, a) I will stand up and give my respect to the nation.
   b) I will keep doing my routine work.
   c) I will be cutting jokes with my neighbors.
   d) I will go walking and taking.

80. I am asked to donate for the Earth Quake Relief Fund,
   a) I will give donation to the extent possible.
   b) I will tease the person collecting donation.
   c) I will not give any donation.
   d) I will ignore any person who asks for donation.

81. If on poll day, I find some people boycotting the poll in my village,
   a) I will curse them in my mind.
   b) I will think why I should bother if some one is not voting.
   c) I will advise them to cast their vote, instilling in their mind the values of good citizenship.
   d) I will remain confused not knowing what to do.

82. If some candidate gives money to our family members for vote,
   a) We will receive the money and caste our votes in his favor.
   b) I will refuse to get money and will not vote.
   c) I will not receive the money, but vote for a candidate of my choice.
   d) I will receive his money, but vote for any other candidate of my choice.
83. If I become aware of a super rich person who dupes and evades payment of income tax, a) I will be confused not knowing what to do about tax evaders.
   b) I will inform the income tax department and also advise the person to pay taxes sincerely.
   c) I will follow his tactics for tax evasion.
   d) I will ask of him for a share in his extra savings due to tax evasion.

84. When I find my friends ignoring celebration of national days in our college such as freedom day, republic day, martyrs day, national integration day, etc.
   a) I will invariably attend all such celebrations.
   b) I will explain to them that rights should be balanced by duties.
   c) I will not discuss their absence as I am myself absent in such celebrations.
   d) I will curse them in my mind about their absence.

85. If I am offered teacher’s post for money,
   a) As I do not have the necessary means, I cannot buy that job.
   b) I will pay the money demanded and accept the job.
   c) I will be baffled to contemplate whether to accept the job sold for money.
   d) If there is no vacancy in teacher’s post, I will resort to self employment activities.

86. In the case of public properties,
   a) I will destroy them, hereafter.
   b) I have not so far destroyed them. I will continue to remain so, even in future.
   c) I have once destroyed government properties.
   d) At present, I am exploiting certain public properties.

87. If I am given a chance to do social service,
   a) I will serve only for the benefit of people of my own cast religion and race.
   b) I will serve for the benefits my own relatives.
   c) I will do service for my mother land, in any part of the country.
   d) I will not serve any where.

88. Due to difference of opinion, if I see disintegration in the society resulting in fractions,
   a) I will cause more disintegration.
   b) I will assume responsibility and reunite them.
   c) I will not participate in re-uniting activities.
   d) I will formally join the re-uniting association and will not be sincere.

89. When I have to travel by bus or train,
   a) I will buy the right ticket for my destination.
   b) I will buy ticket for an intermediate station only.
   c) If I am known to the driver or conductor, I will not buy ticket.
   d) I will board the bus and alight from the bus, without being noticed by the conductor.
90. When my friends engage themselves in anti social activities,
   a) I will feel for them.
   b) I will prevent them by giving proper advice.
   c) I will also wait for opportunities to do like them.
   d) I will be indecisive as to whether or not break my friendship with them.

91. As my contribution for population control,
   a) I will adopt two children policy at my home.
   b) I will act against the policy and contribute for increasing the population.
   c) I will support child marriage and polygamy.
   d) I will not care if population increases.

92. When I see unemployment problem in my country,
   a) I will be looking for a government jobs for me.
   b) I will established a self employment industry and also provide jobs for many others.
   c) I will not go for any job.
   d) I will be confused not knowing what to do.

93. With a view to rehabilitate persons affected by natural calamities, a) I will arrange for government jobs for them according to their qualification and experience.
   b) I will provide them food, clothes and shelter.
   c) I will be unconcerned about them as I am in a safe and sound position.
   d) As I am also an affected person, I will be thinking without finding a way out.

94. If I find my parents acting as intermediaries for corruption, a) I will be in a dilemma as to whether or not question them about the mal practice.
   b) Immediately I will question them and advise them against such activities.
   c) I will support their activity.
   d) I will not be corruptor.

95. If I am offered bribe in the post which I may come up immediately after my studies, a) I will be in dilemma as to whether or not concede and accept the bribe money.
   b) I will receive the bribe offered.
   c) I will decline the bribe and also give advice to others against bribery.
   d) I will resign my job.

96. If I be an officer in charge of distribution of articles under government welfare schemes,
   a) I will keep most of them for myself.
   b) Issue them to the right persons concerned.
   c) Share the articles with my friends and other officials.
   d) I will issue them to right persons for bribe.
97. If national monuments are desecrated by some miscreants, a) I will be bewildered as to how I can apprise them of the formation they are causing to our nation.
   b) I will educate them that their action is unlawful.
   c) At times, I will also do the same act.
   d) I will feel for them.

98. If I am selected in a competitive test for a government post but posted to an inaccessible distant place,
   a) I will spend money on getting a transfer for me to a place of my preference.
   b) I will be undecided if I can get a transfer for money.
   c) I will try to get transfer through political influence.
   d) I will adjust myself to serve in the place allotted to me.

99. If I am invited to be a guest by some one of a different religions,
   a) I will hesitate to accept the invitation.
   b) I will go to them, but will not partake of the meals offered by them.
   c) I will not go to their house, instead will request them to meet some other place.
   d) I will participate in the feast arranged for me.

100. When it comes to invite persons of a different cast, religion or race alien to mine, for a social function in my house,
   a) I will not invite them.
   b) I will have doubts about the need to invite them and make them feast with me.
   c) I will willingly invite them and make them feast with me.
   d) I will not inform them about the function arranged in my house.