CHAPTER 5: ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION OF DATA 85
5.1 Distribution of Respondents by Age Group — Print Media 86
5.1.1 Distribution of Respondents by Age Group — Electronic Media 87
5.1.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Age Group in both Print and Electronic Media 88
5.2 Distribution of Respondents by Designation—Print Media 89
5.2.1 Distribution of Respondents by Designation—Electronic Media 90
5.2.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by designation in both print and Electronic Media 91
5.3 Distribution of Respondents by Academic Qualification—Print Media 92
5.3.1 Distribution of Respondents by Academic Qualification—Electronic Media 93
5.3.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Academic Qualification in both Print and Electronic Media 94
5.4 Distribution of Respondents by Professional Qualification—Print Media 95
5.4.1 Distribution of Respondents by Professional Qualification—Electronic Media 96
5.4.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Category of Professional Qualification in both Print and Electronic Media 97
5.5 Distribution of Respondents by Language Known—Print Media 99
5.5.1 Distribution of Respondents by Language Known—Electronic Media 100
5.5.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Category of Language Known in both Print and Electronic Media 101
5.6 Distribution of Respondents by Monthly Income/Salary—Print Media 102
5.6.1 Distribution of Respondents by Monthly Income/Salary—Electronic Media 103
5.6.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Monthly Income/Salary in both Print and Electronic Media 104
5.7 Distribution of Respondents by Accreditation Status—Print Media 106
5.7.1 Distribution of Respondents by Accreditation Status—Electronic Media 107
5.7.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Accreditation status in both Print and Electronic Media 107
5.8 Distribution of Respondents by Specialization—Print Media 108
5.8.1 Distribution of Respondents by Specialization—Electronic Media 110
5.8.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Specialization in both Print and Electronic Media 112
5.9 Distribution of Respondents by Department/work—Print Media 114
5.9.1 Distribution of Respondents by Department/work — Electronic Media

5.9.2 Comparative study of Distribution of Respondents by Department/Work in both Print and Electronic Media

5.10 Distribution of Respondents by Job Status — Print Media

5.10.1 Distribution of Respondents by Job Status — Electronic Media

5.10.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by job status in both Print and Electronic Media

5.11 Distribution of Respondents by Area of Option Status — Print Media

5.11.1 Distribution of Respondents by Area of Option Status — Electronic Media

5.11.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Area of Option Status in both Print and Electronic Media

5.12 Distribution of Respondents by Job Satisfaction — Print Media

5.12.1 Distribution of Respondents by Job Satisfaction — Electronic Media

5.12.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Job Satisfaction in both Print and Electronic Media

5.13 Distribution of Respondents by Newspaper — Print Media

5.13.1 Distribution of Respondents by News Channel — Electronic Media

5.13.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Newspaper/News Channel periodicity in both Print and Electronic Media

5.14 Distribution of Respondents by Facilities/Amenities Provided by the Organization — Print Media

5.14.1 Distribution of Respondents by Facilities/Amenities Provided by the Organization — Electronic Media

5.14.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Facilities Provided by the Organization in both Print and Electronic Media

5.15 Distribution of Respondents by Frequency of Information Needed — Print Media

5.15.1 Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Dissemination — Electronic Media

5.15.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Frequency of Information Needed in both Print and Electronic Media

5.16 Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Dissemination — Print Media

5.16.1 Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Dissemination — Electronic Media
5.16.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Dissemination in both Print and Electronic Media

5.17 Distribution of Respondents by Use of the Internet — Print Media

5.17.1 Distribution of Respondents by Use of the Internet— Electronic Media

5.17.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Use of the Internet in both Print and Electronic Media

5.18 Distribution of Respondents by Frequency of Use the Internet — Print Media

5.18.1 Distribution of Respondents by Frequency of Use the Internet — Electronic Media

5.18.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Frequency of Use the Internet in both Print and Electronic Media

5.19 Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Library Services — Print Media

5.19.1 Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Library Services — Electronic media

5.19.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Mode of Library Services in both Print and Electronic Media

5.20 Distribution of Respondent by Area of Interest — Print Media

5.20.1 Distribution of Respondent by Area of Interest — Electronic Media

5.20.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Area of Interest in both Print and Electronic Media

5.21 Distribution of Respondents by Sources they Use for Obtaining Reading Material — Print Media

5.21.1 Distribution of Respondents by Sources they Use for Obtaining Reading Material — Electronic Media

5.21.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Sources they Use for Obtaining Reading Material in both Print and Electronic Media

5.22 Distribution of Respondents by Time devoted for Library Visit — Print Media

5.22.1 Distribution of Respondents by Time devoted for Library Visit — Electronic Media

5.22.2 Comparative Study of Distribution of Respondents by Time devoted for Library Visit in both Print and Electronic Media
