ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is an immense pleasure for me to express my sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. R.P. Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Earth Sciences, Manipur University, for his paternal interest, constant encouragement and inspiring guidance throughout this programme. I was fortunate to have been his student during my college life also. It is mainly because of his affectionate inspiration and encouragement that I could have develop the spirit of learning which helped me in completing this work.

I am also thankful to Dr. R.S. Yadava, Assistant Professor, Department of Earth Sciences, for giving his valuable suggestions about the transportation geography and the application of various models of network analysis utilised in this work.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Jagdish Singh, Professor and Head, Department of Geography, Gorakhpur University, Dr. R.B. Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Geography, Rajasthan University, Professor H.N. Sarma and Dr. M.M. Das of the Department of Geography, Gauhati University for their valuable suggestions made during the ICCSR sponsored Workshop on Research Methodology in Geography, held in February 1988 in the Department of Earth Sciences, Manipur University.

I am grateful to the authorities of the Public Works Department, Economics and Statistics Department, Town Planning Department, Department for Development of Tribals and Backward Classes, Police Department and Forest Department of the Government of Manipur and the Manipur State Road Transport Corporation for providing me a lot of help in collection of data, necessary maps, reports and other documents related to the transportational features of the state, which helped me immensely in completion of the present study.

I am also thankful to Gitabali Devi, Kula Singh, Pradip Singh, Robin Meetei, Nilamani Singh, Muhammad Ali, Janatun Begum and Sanahanbi Devi for their help in data collection and preparation of maps etc. I am equally thankful to Shri L. Ibomcha Singh, and Smt. Leirentombi Devi, who have always been pillars of inspiration for me.

I am also grateful to Kumari N. Nungshitombi Devi and Shri L. Tunanbi Singh, who have typed the thesis diligently.

Lastly, I express my thanks to all the well wishers and friends who helped me in one or the other way in completion of this work.
