ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is an immense pleasure for me to express sincere thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. M. Shanti Devi, Reader of Education, Oriental College, Imphal, Manipur, for her paternal treatment, constant encouragement and inspiring guidance in the preparation of the thesis despite her busy personal duties. Had it not been for her unfailing guidance and supervision the present work would have been taken up.

I feel great pleasure in expressing my gratitude to Prof. H. Tombi Singh, Vice Chancellor, Manipur University, Canchipur, Imphal for his full co-operation, valuable suggestions, timely help and useful advices to complete the research work. He has also been a source of strength and motivation throughout and has always spared time to discuss the progress of this work at various stages. I am deeply indebted and owe my humble allegiance to him.

I would like to place on record my grateful thanks to Dr. L. Kunjeswori Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of History, Manipur University, Canchipur, Imphal for her full support, constant encouragement, timely help and guidance in the preparation and completion of this thesis.

Again, I owe my gratitude and grateful to Dr. Mohd. Islamuddin, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Manipur University, Canchipur for his co-operation and help to complete my work.
I also wish to acknowledge my indebtedness to Professors and teaching staffs of the Department of Education, Manipur University, Canchipur, Imphal for their valuable co-operations and suggestions.

My special thanks also go to various libraries, librarians, and the staffs particularly those of Manipur University Library, Canchipur; State Central Library, Imphal; Modern College Library, Imphal; State Council for Educational Research Institute Library, Imphal; for giving me all possible facilities and help when I was hunting literature and data relating to my work.

I am also thankful to the numerous officials and staffs of various Departments of Government of Manipur viz. Economics and Statistics Department Manipur; Department of Population Census, Manipur; Directorate of Education ‘U’, Directorate of Education ‘S’, Manipur Secretariat, for the helping hand they have kindly extended to me during the course of preparation of my research work by providing published and unpublished books, reports, data and other source materials.

Further, I also extend my thankful to the women employees of various Government Departments, Manipur, which are covered in the sample units, for their good co-operation and sound response in giving informations and their sharing experiences.

I express my gratitude to my uncle L. Joyraj Singh Imphal, for his support during the course.
I am also extend my special gratitude to my parents, brothers, sister, all family members and relatives who have always been a source of inspiration to me till the completion of the work. I would be failing in my duties if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to all well wishers and friends for their constant encouragement and suggestions.

Last, but not the least, I extend my sincere thanks to Visual Computer Service (VCS), Canchipur, who took trouble of printing the manuscripts and to Kounu Printing Press, Naoremthong for binding the thesis in a befitting style.
