ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe my first expression of deepest gratitude to the GOD Almighty for guiding and protecting me throughout the process, thus making this study an enriching experience to be cherished forever.

As I come to the completion of my thesis, I am cognizant that I owe a huge gratitude to many people who have contributed directly or indirectly towards the successful completion of this study. These humble words, expressions and gratitude cannot really convey the deep feelings of my heart.

First of all, I express my gratitude to my respected, revered & renowned teacher, mentor and guide Prof. Dinesh K. Gupta for his constant source of inspiration, encouragement, invaluable guidance, constructive criticism throughout my study. His immense knowledge of the subject, analytic gaze, farsightedness and perseverance were a constant source of inspiration during the course of this thesis work. It is my privilege to work under him. Words indeed are poor substitutes to express my obligation due to him.

I am grateful to Prof. Ashu Shokeen, Dr. Manoj Kumar Joshi, Dr. Sanjeev Sharma and other faculty members at DLIS, KUK who deserves a special place for disciplining my professional life and making significant contribution at every stage. It has been very fortunate for me to have the blessings of such learned and dignified personalities.

It is my privilege to appreciate the librarians and other professional staff of concerned 11 institutions and their libraries for providing me the required information. I shall always remain indebted to them with immense gratitude for spending time in filling up the questionnaires.

All my efforts shall go in vain, if I do not thank my colleagues Narender Singh, Anubha Gupta, Ashok Bajwa, Timsy Bhatti and other sweet/memorable friends, Dr. Suresh Aggarwal, Vijyant Bindal, Girish Gupta and Dr. Prabhakar Mishra. It would not have been possible to carry out this work without their active and unstinted involvement.
God has placed 'parents' above himself and once again in my life, I have been made to believe in this age old Vedic verse. I would not have been where I am now without the constant support, guidance and tolerance of my parents. Their constant and untiring support, love, concerns and prayers helped me to tide over occasional moments of stress.

I have no words to express my feelings for my dear wife Chanchal, kids Preksha and Saachi for their love, support, prayer and for understanding my priorities during the course of the entire study. My children have given me precious moments from their childhood for the completion of this work. I am extremely indebted to all my family members who were a source of inspiration to me for completing this work.

Last but not the least; I am extremely indebted to all the individuals who participated in the study, who peep behind every typed word of this thesis and without whose cooperation, I would not have succeeded in my endeavor and bring out this work. I express my apology to all those people whom I could not mention personally.

Ashok Kumar
Dept. of Lib. & Inf. Sc.,
Kurukshetra University
Kurukshetra