ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In completion of this thesis, I owe the greatest debt of gratitude to my teacher and supervisor, Dr. A.R. Mattoo, Professor, Head and Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management Studies, University of Kashmir for his expert guidance and supervision at all the levels of this work. He gave me the liberty to encroach upon his precious time, inspite of his numerous pre-occupations in the administrative and academic fields inside and outside the University.

I am grateful to Dr. Musadig Amin Sahaf, Reader, Department of Management Studies, University of Kashmir, Dr. Ab. Gani, Lecturer, Department of Commerce, University of Kashmir and Dr. Shabir Hassan, Lecturer, Department of Commerce, University of Kashmir for their personal interest in this study and help in the form of fruitful discussions and scholarly criticism.

I am also thankful to Dr. Mohmad Sultan Bhat, Lecturer, Department of Economics, University of Kashmir, Prof. M. B. Sofi, Government Women's College, Baramulla, Dr. Ab. Rashid Trac and Dr. Habibullah Dar, Scientists, SKUAST, for their unceasing help and valuable suggestions during the course of this work.
I extend my sincere thanks to a large number of my friends, particularly Mr. Mushtaq Ahmad Bhat, Mr. Sahibzada Altaf Hussain, Mr. Mohmad Ashraf Peer, Mr. Zahoor Ahmad Bhat, Mr. Manzoor Ahmad Shah and Shafat Ahmad Shah for their suggestions, comments and encouragements throughout this research endeavour.

Thanks are also acknowledged to the authorities and staff of the Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore; Central Silk Board, Bangalore; National Documentation Centre, I.C.S.S.R., New Delhi; Ratan Tata Library, Delhi University, Delhi; Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh; University of Kashmir, Srinagar; and various Central and State Government Departments for allowing me to use their library facilities and extending all help and co-operation.

It is my pleasure to extend my thanks to my younger brothers, Mr. Farooq Shah and Mr. Rafiq Shah for their help in tabulation, analysis and compilation of the thesis.

I express my great thanks to the University Grants Commission for providing me Teacher Fellowship under Faculty Improvement Programme, for this research work.
I acknowledge my enormous debt to all the cocoon rearers, workers and Managers, whom I interviewed during my survey, for their whole-hearted and active co-operation, without which it would not have been possible to complete the survey, which forms the basis of the present work.

I also acknowledge my appreciation to Mr. Rashir A. Nawchoo for typing out this project so cheerfully and carefully.

At the end, I confess that the deficiencies and loopholes in the thesis are due to my own limitations.

University of Kashmir, Srinagar, Hazratbal, 190006
July 1991

( Ali Mohmad Shah )