ACCEPTANCE OF INDEBTNESS

I am experiencing the feeling of pleasure and joy on presenting the research report before Sarva Vishwavidyalaya, Gandhinagar.

Any research is not a personal work, but is a result of group efforts. Therefore, in the result of any research, handlebar, guidance, cooperation and well wishes, these four matters are like pillars of building.

The path director for reaching up to the goal as well as one who gave encouragement for the study by necessary literature, being my guide Dr. D.A. Uchat although who was very busy in the educational activity, I am expressing lot of thanks to him for the frankness, affection and love that he has shown.

The experts like Dr. H.O. Joshi, Dr. Pallaviben Patel, Dr. Chandrakant Bhogayata, Dr. N.S. Donga as well as experience teachers of Secondary school in Gujarati subject who provided necessary encouragement for the interpretation of information and instrument in this study, I also express their thanks.

I would be indebted for ever and expressing thanks by heart of my mother-father, brother and sister in law, as well my father in law, mother in law as well as husband who developed my life and always worried about my career and study and became economically and mentally helpful to me on every second and minute who have shown encouragement for ever.

I am expressing thanks of all professors, librarian, and trusty council of B. Ed. College of Karnavat who were helpful in my research work.
