ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My initial enthusiasm to do research became fruitful due to the encouragement, staunch support, good spirit and compassion of my former Research Guide, late Dr. R. Viswanathan, former Head of the Department, Department of English, University of Calicut. Even in his absence, his inspiring words have helped my research. After his demise, when I lost track of research, perplexed how to proceed, a real prop was rendered by my present Research Supervisor, Dr. T.V. Prakash, Reader in English, Farook College, Calicut. I am greatly indebted to his timely instructions, incessant encouragement and meticulous guidance without which my thesis would not have taken the final form.

There are many others who have helped me enhance my arguments and improve my presentation. I am greatly obliged to Dr. B. Sreedevi, Head of the Department, Department of English, University of Calicut and Prof. T.M Abdul Jaleel, Reader in English, University of Calicut. I am also grateful to Mr. A. Kutttialikutty, the Principal, Farook College, Dr. P.M. Mubarak Pasha, former Principal, Farook College, Mrs. T.A. Naseem, the Head of the Department of English, Farook College, Dr. Asha Muhammad, former Head of the Department of English, Farook College.
and all the members of the English Department who have helped me in this endeavour. I extend my gratitude to Mr. Basheer Kotta for the assistance he has rendered.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to Indira Gandhi Memorial Library, University of Hyderabad, the library of English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU), Hyderabad, Kannur University Library, C.H. Muhammad Koya Library, University of Calicut, English Department Library of the University of Calicut and Farook College Library. I am indebted to the staff of BEENA PHOTOSTAT, Calicut University for binding this thesis. I am grateful to my nephew, Riyas, for the help rendered. This thesis would not have taken the final form without the patience and support of my husband who accompanied me to various libraries and did the major part of typing. He has supported me throughout my doctorate programme. I remember with gratitude the maturity shown by my nine-year-old-son who has coped with my hectic schedule. I am thankful to my parents, the parents of my husband and other members of family and friends for their cooperation and support.
