Albert Schweitzer states –

“At times our own light goes out and is rekindled by a spark from another person. Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us.”

This dissertation would not have been possible without the guidance and the help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study.

I bow down to the Almighty God not only for helping me in this thesis but also for this birth and for making my life bountiful.

Upon completion of this thesis and the accomplishment of my Ph.D. study, I would like to express my gratitude to all those who granted me the opportunity to study in my chosen field and those who helped me survive all the hardship during the past four years time. Particularly, I would like to thank the Department of English of the Sardar Patel University for all sorts of support in my Ph.D. journey.

First and foremost, I am deeply indebted to my thesis supervisor Dr. R.K.Mandalia for his professional expertise, insightful comments and stimulating encouragement. His great care and patience in reading, correcting and embellishing my thesis draft from chapter to chapter has made me feel more and more confident in my thesis and always at ease along my writing path. I am also impressed by his brainstorming discussions and valuable suggestions in every regular thesis meeting. I truly believe that this thesis would never have had a chance to be completed without his guidance.

I gratefully thank Professor Javed Khan, Head, Department of English, S. P. University for his support, guidance and constructive comments on this thesis.

Collective and individual acknowledgments are also owed to my colleagues at Anand Arts College and Anand Institute of P.G. Studies in Arts. Many thanks go in particular to Dr. R. P. Patel Sir, for giving me such a pleasant time when working together with them since I knew him.

I owe my special thanks to Mahida Sir, Director AIBS and Late. Chandralata Ma’am for taking trouble to spare time from their busy schedule to discuss in detail and elaborate several psychologists and their theories. They have been like power boosters to me for my thesis.

I am thankful Dr. Star Payal and Dr. Suresh Gadhvi, for availing themselves to me. They have opened their hearts and their doors, supplying me with resources I never could have found without them. It is a pleasure to express my gratitude wholeheartedly to Deepak Uncle and Sameer Uncle for their kind gesture in getting me enrolled for the Ph.D.

I thank Mr. Bimal, for helping me in formatting my thesis. I warmly thank Pratik, Ankit, Dinesh and Late. Manish, for their timely help when required and moral support in shaping my thesis.

I would like to thank many people who have taught me English subject: my school teachers, my high school English teachers (Specially Sister Sunita Bunch and Sister Stella), my undergraduate teachers at Anand Arts College, and my Post-graduate teachers (especially Dave Sir and Joshi Sir). I thank all these people for their kind assistance, giving wise advice, helping with various applications, and so on.

Where would I be without my family? My parents deserve special mention for their inseparable support and prayers. My Father, Ashok Kumar Srivastava, in the first place is the person who put the fundament of learning character, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. My Mother, Sandhya Rani Srivastava, is the one who sincerely raised me with her caring and gently love. I also thank my brother Priyanshu Srivastava and my Dadi for their motivation and moral support.

Words fail me to express my appreciation to my wife Dr. Beena, Incharge Principal, Anand Arts College whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, has taken the load off my shoulder. I owe her for being unselfishly let her intelligence, passions, and ambitions collide with mine. I gratefully acknowledge my wife Beena for her advice, supervision, and crucial contribution, which made her a backbone of this thesis. Her involvement with her originality has triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity that I will benefit from, for a long time to come. She has been the source light of my life and especially for this thesis. She has helped me in writing many chapters of this thesis. I am also thankful to my in-laws for their moral support.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of my thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention personally one by one.

I would like to dedicate my thesis to my parents and my loving, supportive, alluring, fantabulous, debonair, exuberant, cooperative, elated, and sedate wife Beena.
