ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I take this opportunity with much pleasure to thank all the people who have helped me through the course of my journey towards completion of this thesis. I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my research guide, Professor Dr. Ashok Shanubhogue, for his excellent supervision, support, advice, and encouragement during the course of this study. He provided many useful suggestions, references and friendly encouragement.

The support extended to me by Dr. P. A. Patel, Professor and Head, Department of Statistics Sardar Patel University and Dr. S. R. Patel, Professor and Former Head, of the department, are genuinely acknowledged. I also place on record my profound sense of gratitude to other teachers and office staff of the department for their kind cooperation during the entire period of research. I owe a lot to my friends especially the research scholars who helped, inspired and encouraged me whenever in need. My thanks are also due to Dr. K. S. Prasad, Assistant Professor at G.H. Patel Post Graduate Institute of Business Management, Vallabhi Vidyanagar, for his kind co-operation.

My deep sense of gratitude to my wife Aparna and children Alok and Nidhi for showing extreme patience and bearing with me during the period of my study. But for them the work would not have been possible.

I am highly indebted to the prayers of my parents who have always encouraged me in my endeavors and have been a constant source of inspiration to me. Their enduring love and support helped me overcome all the difficulties I faced in the past. The encouragement, prayers and blessings of all the other members in my family are gratefully acknowledged.

Finally, I would like to express my thanks to all those who have helped directly and indirectly in the completion of this work.
