ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I consider it my privilege and duty to thank all those who have helped me in several ways during my work on this project.

I wish to express my deep gratitude to my teacher and supervisor Dr. C. Sengupta, Reader in the Department of English and other European Languages, for his able supervision. For his guidance and prompt help, I remain most grateful to him.

I would like to express my thanks to Dr. Rathak, Professor and Head of the Department of English and other European Languages, U.T.D., Sagar for his concern and help.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Mrs. Santana Sengupta and Dr. Mrs. Shanti Sivaraman for their constructive suggestions and affectionate encouragement throughout the course of my research.

I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude to Sister Joseline D. Paumath, the President of the Holy Cross Sisters' Society in India for the support and the help I received from her in many ways. I am also indebted to Sister Julia Erni, the former President of the Holy Cross Sisters' Society.

I am grateful to the librarians of Jawaharlal Nehru Library, U.T.D., Sagar; to Central Reference Library of Delhi University, Delhi; to the National Library, Calcutta, for making rare books and journals available to me.

My sincere thanks are due to Vincent Valiaveetil, S.D.B., Research Scholar in Los Angeles for helping me to obtain books and reprints of articles from various sources in the U.S.A. My grateful acknowledgements are due to The Principal, St. Joseph’s College, North Point; to The Principal, Loretto College, Darjeeling, for lending me books from their respective college libraries.

I am grateful to all those Holy Cross Sisters who have constantly encouraged me and helped me in various ways during my research studies. I am also grateful to all my friends whose support and encouragement were a source of strength to me. My sincere thanks are due to my companion, Sister James Mary who typed this work with care and interest.

Finally it is with joy I record my gratitude to my parents and dear ones who constantly encouraged me and gave me their blessings.

Miss Anniamma Manuel.
