Acknowledgement

I wish to place on record my deep sense of indebtedness and immense gratitude to Dr. D. Radhakrishnan Nair, Reader, Mahatma Gandhi University Research Centre in English, Mar Athanasius College, Kothamangalam, under whose expert guidance and excellent supervision this work has taken its present shape and form. He has been most gracious with his support, constant and unstinting encouragement, innovative suggestions and creative criticism all through the project.

I am greatly obliged to Prof. Sarah Joseph, eminent feminist writer, for the kind interest she has taken in my work. My discussions with her have been inspiring and illuminating.

Let me express my sincere thanks to the Manager and the Principal of St. Dominic’s College, Kanjirapally for granting me permission to pursue my work under the Faculty Improvement Programme of the University Grants Commission.

I acknowledge with gratitude the invaluable help extended by the Principal and the Management of Mar Athanasius College, Kothamangalam, in making available all the facilities of the M.G. University Research Centre in English at the college, throughout the tenure of my project. I express my sincere thanks to the Head of the Department, the teachers and the research scholars associated with the Research Centre for their encouragement and co-operation.

My warmest thanks are due to my friends and colleagues in the Departments of English and Oriental Languages of St. Dominic’s College, Kanjirapally, particularly to Dr. Marykutty Zacharias, Head of the Department of English, Dr. T.A. Babu,
Smt. Mariamma George, Smt. Ancy Joseph and Smt. Lillykutty Abraham, for their interest and constant involvement in my work in many special ways.

I gratefully remember the services rendered by IACIS (formerly ASRC) Hyderabad, SCILET, American College, Madurai, M.P. Varghese Library and the Research Centre Library of M.A. College, Kothamangalam, M.G. University Library, Kottayam, and St. Dominic's College Library, Kanjirapally.

A special word of thanks to the members of my family for being my surest and strongest source of inspiration and encouragement.

I thank M/s Copy Write, Ettumanoor, for their prompt execution of the word processing and photocopying of this work.

Above all, I thank God Almighty for His Unending Grace.
